Multifaceted Strategies for Social-Emotional Learning and Whole Learner Education McCray, Carissa,2020-07-31 With the turmoil and conflict that has been present in recent times it is imperative that new methods of teaching are explored in order to produce emotionally secure and connected individuals Social emotional learning and whole learner education has emerged as a strategy to ensure that students are actively engaged in learning the school and their community. It teaches them tactics that allow them to better manage their emotions, maintain positive relationships, and make responsible decisions. It is imperative that the whole learner is supported and encouraged to ensure proper mental health, academic achievement, and social responsibility of current and future generations.

Multifaceted Strategies for Social Emotional Learning and Whole Learner Education is a critical research publication that supports teachers who wish to utilize these teaching theories to meet their students' needs academically, socially, and emotionally, and to ensure that they become lifelong learners. Highlighting topics such as adult learners, professional development, and culturally responsive education, this book is ideal for teachers, guidance counselors, researchers, academicians, and students who want to improve their understanding of learners and their social/emotional growth at various stages of learning, to find strategies that will assist in the development of any learner, and to find strategic models that promote lifelong learning.

Teaching the Content Areas to English Language Learners in Secondary Schools Luciana C. de Oliveira, Kathryn M. Obenchain, Rachael H. Kenney, Alandeom W. Oliveira, 2019-01-17. This practitioner-based book provides different approaches for reaching an increasing population in today's schools: English language learners (ELLs). The recent development and adoption of the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts and Literacy in History/Social Studies/Science and Technical Subjects (CCSS ELA Literacy), the Common Core State Standards for Mathematics, the C3 Framework, and the Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS) highlight the role that teachers have in developing discipline-specific competencies. This requires new and innovative approaches for teaching the content areas to all students. The book begins with an introduction that contextualizes the chapters in which the editors highlight transdisciplinary theories and approaches that cut across content areas. In addition, the editors include a table that provides a matrix of how strategies and theories map across the chapters. The four sections of the book represent the following content areas: English language arts, mathematics, science, and social studies. This book offers practical guidance that is grounded in relevant theory and research and offers teachers suggestions on how to use the approaches described.

Learning in the Fast Lane Suzy Pepper Rollins, 2014-04-10. Too often, students who fail a grade or a course receive remediation that ends up widening rather than closing achievement gaps. According to veteran classroom teacher and educational consultant Suzy Pepper Rollins, the true answer to supporting struggling students lies in acceleration. In Learning in the Fast Lane, she lays out a plan of action that teachers can use to immediately move underperforming students in the right direction and differentiate instruction for all learners, even those who excel academically. This essential guide identifies eight high-impact, research-based instructional approaches that will help you:

- Make standards and learning goals explicit to students.
- Increase students' vocabulary, a key to their academic success.
- Build students' motivation and self-efficacy so that they become active, optimistic participants in class.
- Provide rich, timely feedback that enables students to improve when it counts.
- Address skill and knowledge gaps within the context of new learning.
