Leibman,2010-07-22 With a breadwinner dad a homemaker mom and squeaky clean kids the 1950s television family has achieved near mythological status as a model of what real families ought to be Yet feature films of the period often portrayed families in trouble with parents and children in conflict over appropriate values and behaviors Why were these representations of family apparently so far apart Nina Leibman analyzes many feature films and dozens of TV situation comedy episodes from 1954 to 1963 to find surprising commonalities in their representations of the family Redefining the comedy as a family melodrama she compares film and television depictions of familial power gender roles and economic attitudes Leibman s explorations reveal how themes of guilt deceit manipulation anxiety and disfunctionality that obviously characterize such movies as Rebel without a Cause A Summer Place and Splendor in the Grass also crop up in such TV shows as The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet Father Knows Best Leave It to Beaver The Donna Reed Show and My Three Sons Drawing on interviews with many of the participants of these productions archival documents and trade journals Leibman sets her discussion within a larger institutional history of 1950s film and television Her discussions shed new light not only on the reasons for both media s near obsession with family life but also on changes in American society as it reconfigured itself in the postwar era      New York Magazine ,1984-01-23 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea      Focus On: 100 Most Popular Tony Award Winners Wikipedia contributors,      Focus On: 100 Most Popular Television Series by Warner Bros. Who the Hell Are We Fighting? C. Michael Hiam, 2019-07-16 A tightly written narrative history Harvard magazine It was an enigma of the Vietnam War American troops kept killing the Viet Cong and were being killed in the process and yet the Viet Cong's ranks continued to grow When one man CIA analyst Sam Adams uncovered documents suggesting a Viet Cong army more than twice as numerous as previously reckoned another war erupted this time within the ranks of America's intelligence community This clandestine conflict which burst into public view during the acrimonious lawsuit Westmoreland v CBS involved the highest levels of the U.S. government The central issue in the trial as in the war itself was the calamitous failure of our intelligence agencies to ascertain the strength of the Viet Cong and get that information to our troops in a timely fashion The legacy of this failure whether due to institutional inertia misguided politics or individual hubris haunts our nation And Sam Adams' tireless crusade for honest intelligence resonates strongly today To detractors like Richard Helms Adams was an obsessive zealot to others he was a patriot of rare integrity and moral courage Adams was the driving force behind the CBS ninety minute documentary The Uncounted Enemy produced by George Crile and hosted by Mike Wallace Westmoreland brought a lawsuit seeking 120 million in damages against Adams and Wallace in what headlines around the country trumpeted as the libel trial of the century Westmoreland dropped his suit before the case could be sent to the jury
