Shore, 2012-06-20 American health care has made great strides in the past hundred years Life expectancy has increased dramatically and advances in medicine and treatments have eradicated many life threatening diseases However in today s health care arena there is divergence between our health needs the structure of our health care system and how health care is delivered and funded In Forces of Change David A Shore has collected the leading thinking from experts in the field on how our health care system can benefit from important lessons from other industries and effect transformational change that truly serves all stakeholders well Contributors include Max Caldwell of Towers Watson Michael J Dowling of North Shore Long Island Jewish Medical Health System John P Glaser of Siemens Healthcare Ashish K Jha of the Harvard School of Public Health Eric D Kupferberg of Northeastern University Lucian Leape of the Harvard School of Public Health Jeff Margolis of the TriZetto Group Inc and David Shoultz of Philips Electronics Love in a Time of Fear Cassie J. E. H. Trentaz, 2018-08-29 How do we love people who we are afraid of The political climate of the US in recent years has revealed significant divisions in our nation and our neighborhoods divisions often fueled by fear For those who follow a call and commitment to love our neighbors how do we love in the midst of this fear In this book Cassie Trentaz looks that question in the eyes and asks her friends and neighbors in four communities currently facing pressure and often viewed with suspicion immigrants Muslim Americans LGBTQ people and young African American men what feels like love to them and alternatively what does not Trentaz brings their honest heartfelt responses in their own words helping us to know people we might not know and bringing us powerful stories of offerings of love that were received as love as well as stories of good intentions that missed their mark She then offers us tools to help us act on what we hear This book is both an invitation and a toolbox for listening It takes love from a good idea to a concrete force that can speak to our fears reach across divisions and just might heal our world

Marketing Science Fictions Robert Cluley,2024-12-19 This book explores data science in practice through an ethnographic study at a global marketing technology and research firm The book shows that while businesses have embraced data science methods to understand markets and consumers in practice they produce too much information Consequently they must be combined with creative practices that simplify and make sense of analytics Cluley shows that in the age of data science business is increasingly artistic In this case marketing science is more like marketing science fiction This is essential reading for understanding contemporary data driven business and marketing as well as social and economic relations in the age of surveillance capitalism with lessons for academics and students of marketing technology and data science

Making and Remaking Horror in the 1970s and 2000s David Roche,2014-02-06 In Making and Remaking Horror in the 1970s and 2000s author David Roche takes up the assumption shared by many fans and scholars that original horror movies are more disturbing and thus better than the remakes He assesses the qualities of movies old and recast according to criteria that include subtext originality and cohesion With a methodology that combines a formalist and cultural studies approach Roche sifts aspects of the American horror movie that have been widely addressed class the patriarchal family gender and the opposition between terror and horror and those that have been somewhat neglected race the Gothic style and verisimilitude Containing seventy eight black and white illustrations the book is grounded in a close comparative analysis of the politics and aesthetics of four of the most significant independent American horror movies of the 1970s The Texas Chain Saw Massacre The Hills Have Eyes Dawn of the Dead and Halloween and their twenty first century remakes To what extent can the politics of these films be described as disturbing inasmuch as they promote subversive subtexts that undermine essentialist perspectives Do the politics of the film lie on the surface or are they wedded to the film s aesthetics Early in the book Roche explores historical contexts aspects of identity race ethnicity and class and the structuring role played by the motif of the American nuclear family He then asks to what extent these films disrupt genre expectations and attempt to provoke emotions of dread terror and horror through their representations of the monstrous and the formal strategies employed In this inquiry he examines definitions of the genre and its metafictional nature Roche ends with a meditation on the extent to which the technical limitations of the horror films of the 1970s actually contribute to this disturbing quality Moving far beyond the genre itself Making and Remaking Horror studies the redux as a form of adaptation and enables a more complete discussion of the evolution of horror in contemporary American cinema Dragon Drive
