With recent headlines around fake news from world leaders and around presidential elections, Twitter and other social media platforms being pressured to detect and label misinformation posted on their platforms as well as misinformation around COVID-19 and its vaccine, the world has seen an increase in protests, policy changes and even chaos surrounding this information. This spread of misinformation when left unchecked can turn fiction into fact and result in a mass misconception of the truth that shapes opinions, creates false narratives and impacts multiple facets of society in potentially detrimental ways, indicating a need for the latest research on how the devastating impacts of this trend, how to discern facts from misinformation as well as more information on technological advancements in fake news detection. The Research Anthology on Fake News, Political Warfare and Combatting the Spread of Misinformation is a compilation of the most comprehensive previously published and highly cited research from prestigious institutions including Columbia University and Stanford University, USA, which focuses on understanding fake news, how it spreads its negative effects and current solutions being investigated. While highlighting topics such as fake news, trending conspiracy theories, media distrust, political warfare and detection methods, this book is ideally intended for practitioners, stakeholders, researchers, academicians and students interested in the continuing surge of fake news and its at times dangerous results.      Argument and Persuasion Nancy Cavender, Howard Kahane, 1989.      How to Write an Essay Kathi Wyldeck, 2013-06-17.
