Woods,Michael Woods,2011-01-01 Did you know People first used skis more than 8 000 years ago The first wheels were used in pottery not for transportation Traffic jams often clogged the streets of ancient Rome Transportation technology is as old as human society itself The first humans on Earth used simple transportation tools They bundled logs together to make rafts They used long poles and flat boards to carry heavy loads Over the centuries ancient peoples learned more about transportation The ancient Indians trained elephants and horses for travel The ancient Chinese developed the first compasses The ancient Greeks built massive battleships So what kinds of tools and techniques did ancient people use How did maps of the world improve over time And how did ancient transportation set the stage for our own modern transportation technology Learn more in Ancient Transportation Technology British and American News Maps in the Early Cold War Period, 1945-1955 Jeffrey P. Stone,2019-06-06 During the early years of the Cold War England and the United States both found themselves reassessing their relationship with their former ally the Soviet Union and the status of their own special relationship was far from certain As Jeffrey P Stone argues maps from British and American news journals from this period became a valuable tool for relating the new realities of the Cold War to millions of readers These maps were vehicles for political ideology revealing both obvious and subtle differences in how each country viewed global geopolitics at the onset of the Cold War Richly illustrated with news maps cartographic advertisements and cartoons from the era this book reveals the idiomatic political cultural and material differences contributing to these divergent cartographic visions of the Cold War world
