Multidimensional and Cross-spherical Study of Cognitive Metaphorology Yi Sun, 2025-09-01 This book aims to illustrate and explain the Cognitive Metaphorology from experiential and cultural perspectives and highlights two prominent features of cognitive metaphor multidimensionality and cross sphere application This book demonstrates that embodied experience is the shared philosophical basis of commonalities underlying the similarities in these metaphors across Chinese and English national and cultural factors introduce variations in metaphors between the two languages The different cultural aspects revealed through metaphors related to human body parts emotions senses time colors and animals may appeal to academic readers interested in language studies or diverse cultures Decentering Translation Studies Judy Wakabayashi, Rita Kothari, 2009 This book foregrounds practices and discourses of translation in several non Western traditions Translation Studies currently reflects the historiography and concerns of Anglo American and European scholars overlooking the full richness of translational activities and diverse discourses The essays in this book which generally have a historical slant help push back the geographical and conceptual boundaries of the discipline They illustrate how distinctive historical social and philosophical contexts have shaped the ways in which translational acts are defined performed viewed encouraged or suppressed in different linguistic communities The volume has a particular focus on the multiple contexts of translation in India but also encompasses translation in Korea Japan and South Africa as well as representations of Sufism in different contexts

The Song of Songs Ariel Bloch, Chana Bloch, 1998-01-01 Quite simply the best version in the English language Its poetic voice intimate dignified and informed by meticulous scholarship carries us into the Eden of the original Hebrew text a world in which the sexual awakening of two unmarried lovers is celebrated with a sensuality and a richness of music that are thrilling beyond words Stephen Mitchell Ariel and Chana Bloch have succeeded in an extraordinarily difficult task This is the best and most enjoyable translation of the Song of Songs that I know Their notes too offer excellent insights to readers who know Hebrew and for that matter to those who do not Elaine Pagels This translation is lucid and direct and has a lyrical purity that is delightful It seems to me a model of how such work may be done W S Merwin Spirituality in the Writings of Etty Hillesum Klaas Smelik, Ria van den Brandt, Meins G. S. Coetsier, 2010-10-25 Much of the previous scholarship on Etty Hillesum 1914-1943 was done by individual scholars within the analyses of their fields. After the proceedings of the international Etty Hillesum Congress at Ghent University in November 2008, this Congress volume is the first joint effort by more than twenty Hillesum experts worldwide. It is an absorbing account of international scholarship on the life, works, and vision of the Dutch Jewish writer Etty Hillesum, whose life was shaped by the totalitarian Nazi regime. Hillesum's diaries and letters illustrate her heroic struggle to come to terms with her personal life in the context of World War II. Building on new interest in theology, philosophy, and psychology, this book revives Hillesum research with a comprehensive rereading of both her published works and lesser-known secondary discourses on her life. The result is fascinating. With the current explosion of interest in interreligious dialogue, peace studies, Judaism, the Holocaust, gender studies, and mysticism, it is clear that this Congress volume will be invaluable to students and scholars in various disciplines.

Quantitative Methods in Corpus-based Translation Studies Michael P. Oakes, Meng Ji, 2012. This is a comprehensive guidebook to the quantitative methods needed for Corpus-Based Translation Studies (CBTS). It provides a systematic description of the various statistical tests used in Corpus Linguistics, which can be used in translation research. In Part 1, Theoretical Explorations, the interplay between quantitative and qualitative methodologies is explored. Part 2, Essential Corpus Studies, describes how to undertake quantitative studies with a suitable level of technical and relevant case studies. Part 3, Quantitative Explorations of Literary Translations, looks at translations of classic works by Cao Xueqin, James Joyce, and other authors. Finally, Part 4, on Translation Lexis, uses a variety of techniques new to translation studies, including multivariate analysis and game theory. This book is aimed at students and researchers of corpus linguistics, translation studies, and quantitative linguistics. It will significantly advance current translation studies in terms of methodological innovation and will fill an important gap in the development of quantitative methods for interdisciplinary translation studies.
