Negotiating Academic Writing in an English-Medium University Xiaohao Ma, 2025-06-30 Building on a collection of students perspectives and narratives Ma examines how non native English speaking NNES students negotiate English academic writing EAW to reveal the general patterns and distinct routes in addressing challenges in higher education With the significant expansion of internationalization and student mobility the discourse on cross border education and how NNES students navigate the high stakes educational journey remain pertinent This book presents an in depth qualitative study that investigates how NNES students in an English medium university negotiate the demands of EAW in postgraduate study The research foregrounds NNES students experiences and provides a comprehensive understanding of how they perceive experience and address the challenges of EAW by focusing on a group of mainland Chinese students studying in Hong Kong Key topics discussed include the impact of English as an academic lingua franca on non native speakers the roles of universities in supporting these students and lessons of individuals addressing academic challenges Written for NNES students researchers and practitioners in higher education including language professionals and other specialists in language teaching this compelling text will also interest general readers of academic and linguistic literacy

Seductive Academic Writing Danyal Freeman, 2018-04-18 This volume teaches academics and graduate students how to write seductive academic prose by learning a literacy rarely taught in academic writing or style handbooks to use literary devices and figures of speech to meet ideals of stylish communication and how these ideals and supposed literary techniques serve academic readers and writers Part one explores the persistent problem of the bad academic writing style called academese and argues stylish academic writers avoid it by writing with figures of speech Part two teaches and illustrates figures of speech seductive writers write into academic prose to convey the music and rhythms of good speech cohesion coherence and storytelling and the personality and passions of the author Part three argues the academy will not heal itself of academese until academic writing pedagogies teach students to care enough for their readers to write with figures of speech that craft seductive academic writing

Teaching Academic Writing as a Discipline-Specific Skill in Higher Education Ezza, El-Sadig Y., Drid, Touria, 2019-12-27 It is now held that writing influences and is influenced by the discipline where it occurs The representations that writers employ to produce and comprehend texts are said to be sensitive to the specificities of their disciplinary discourse communities This exposes writers to divergent disciplinary demands and expectations on what counts as good and appropriate writing in terms of generic structure discourse features and stylistic preferences reflecting dissimilar practices Because of such exigencies academic writing seems at times to be very challenging especially for novice scholars Thus any attempt to perceive the function of academic writing in higher education or to evaluate its quality should not discard the shaping force of the disciplines Teaching Academic Writing as a Discipline Specific Skill in Higher Education is a critical scholarly resource that examines the role of writing within academic circles and the disciplinary practices of writing in scholastic environments The book will also explore the particular difficulties that confront writers in the disciplines as well as the endeavors of educational institutions to develop discipline specific writing traditions among practicing and novice scholars Featuring a range of topics such as blended learning data interpretation and knowledge construction this book is essential for instructors academicians administrators professors researchers and students
