Akbar Zaidi Economic Issues Chapter 15:

Issues in Pakistan's Economy S. Akbar Zaidi, 2005 This book is the main text for post graduate courses on South Asia's development economic history and on its political economy For researchers on Pakistan's economy it is the key source for reference and covers a huge and diverse array of data literature reviews commentary and analysis The Military Factor in Pakistan Ravi Shekhar Narain Singh, 2008 Pakistan's politics governance institutional capacities internal and external security and the nation building process are at a critical juncture The stance of the military thus will be a critical factor in determining the future course of Pakistan Under the prevailing scenario in the country any elected government would need to reestablish the viability and vitality of the state Should it fail the army would be compelled to intervene to save the country from falling apart For an objective and in depth analysis as to how Pakistan has arrived at this critical juncture it is important to delve into the personalities and processes that have shaped the destiny of the country The future of Pakistan is dependent on the flux and interplay of the internal and external processes and compulsions This book therefore traces the military underpinnings in the political geopolitical strategic economic religious sociological and sectarian journey that Pakistan has made over the last sixty years The Pakistan Paradox Christophe Jaffrelot, 2016-06-16 The idea of Pakistan stands riddled with tensions Initiated by a small group of select Urdu speaking Muslims who envisioned a unified Islamic state today Pakistan suffers the divisive forces of various separatist movements and religious fundamentalism A small entrenched elite continue to dominate the country's corridors of power and democratic forces and legal institutions remain weak But despite these seemingly insurmountable problems the Islamic Republic of Pakistan continues to endure The Pakistan Paradox is the definitive history of democracy in Pakistan and its survival despite ethnic strife Islamism and deepseated elitism This edition focuses on three kinds of tensions that are as old as Pakistan itself The tension between the unitary definition of the nation inherited from Jinnah and centrifugal ethnic forces between civilians and army officers who are not always in favour of or against democracy and between the Islamists and those who define Islam only as a cultural identity marker Economic and Political Weekly, 2005 Political Conflict in Pakistan Mohammad Waseem, 2022-04-01 This book is a major reinterpretation of politics in Pakistan Its focus is conflict among groups communities classes ideologies and institutions which has shaped the country's political dynamics Mohammad Waseem critically examines the theory surrounding the millennium long conflict between Hindus and Muslims as separate nations who practiced mingled faiths and the Hindu Muslim and Sikh renaissances that created a twentieth century clash of communities and led to partition Political Conflict in Pakistan addresses multiple clashes between the high culture as a mission to transform society and the low culture of the land and the people between those committed to the establishment's institutional constitutional framework and those seeking to dismantle the colonial state between the corrupt and those seeking to hold them to account between the political class and the middle class and between civil and military power The author exposes how the ruling elite centralised power through the militarisation and judicialization of politics rendering the federalist arrangement an empty shell and thus grossly alienating the provinces He sets all this within the contexts of education and media as breeders of conflict the difficulties of establishing an anti terrorist regime and the state s pragmatic attempts at conflict resolution by seeking to keep the outsiders inside This is a wide ranging account of a country of contestations The New Development Paradigm S. Akbar Zaidi,2000 The role of government institutions and society has been radically transformed in the last two decades This book examines how the New Development Paradigm is put into practice in Pakistan and other underdeveloped countries It focuses upon the role NGOs institutions and local governments play in development related activity and examines the attempts to alter the gender balance considered to be one of the main reasons for lack of development Essentially the book offers a critique of the new theories which constitute the New Development Paradigm and addresses a wide audience ranging from the scholar and activist to journalists and general readers Good Governance and Economic Development Ramesh Chandra Das,2024-09-27 Good governance is a prerequisite to development improving the quality of life and health and ensuring equity This book examines the interdependency of good governance and economic development by exploring perspectives from the Global North and the Global South It assesses the impact of good governance on economic development of countries such as the USA India Nigeria Turkey Pakistan Bangladesh Nepal and others and on groups of developing nations like BRICS or ASEAN The book investigates the interrelationships between development indicators like education health gender equity resource distribution environmental preservation quality of life livelihood and others with governance and provides empirical verifications of the impact of good governance upon development Further it offers insights into the economic and governance challenges that developing countries face and highlights strategies for governance that have proved effective in bolstering sustainable growth This volume will be of interest to students and researchers of economics political science social science international relations public administration and sociology New Perspectives on Pakistan's Political Economy Matthew McCartney,S. Akbar Zaidi,2019-09-19 Makes a major intervention in debates around the nature of the political economy of Pakistan focusing on its contemporary social dynamics The South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (SAARC) Lawrence Saez,2012-05-23 The South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC is an international organization comprised of the eight countries in South Asia This work aims examine the institutional structure objectives and effectiveness of the SAARC in its role as South Asia s leading regional institution Drawing on original research it offers a fresh and accessible account of SAARC arguing that South Asia forms a unique regional security complex that enables certain forms of regional cooperation and bars cooperation on other issue areas The text provides a comprehensive introduction to the SAARC describing the historical developments that lead to its formation and examining key issues such as The inner workings of Regional Centres and their success in implementing the decisions reached at SAARC summits How SAARC has sought to address critical new security challenges such as health pandemics terrorism energy security South Asia

s economic cooperation and the South Asia Free Trade Agreement SAFTA Challenges that expansion pose to the organization particularly China s suggestion to expand beyond the traditional borders of South Asia The work aims to evaluate what scope there is for formal institutions like SAARC to provide a permanent regional security architecture within which South Asian countries can effectively address important issues and will be of great interest to all students and scholars of Asian security studies and institutions in general and students and scholars of international relations in South Asia in particular

The Politics of Ethnicity in Pakistan Farhan Hanif Siddiqi, 2012-05-04 In order to understand the Pakistani state and government s treatment of non dominant ethnic groups after the failure of the military operation in East Pakistan and the independence of Bangladesh this book looks at the ethnic movements that were subject to a military operation after 1971 the Baloch in the 1970s the Sindhis in the 1980s and Mohajirs in the 1990s The book critically evaluates the literature on ethnicity and nationalism by taking nationalist ideology and the political divisions which it generates within ethnic groups as essential in estimating ethnic movements It goes on to challenge the modernist argument that nationalism is only relevant to modern industrialised socio economic settings The available evidence from Pakistan makes clear that ethnic movements emanate from three distinct socio economic realms tribal Baloch rural Sindh and urban Mohajir and the book looks at the implications that this has as well as how further arguments could be advanced about the relevance of ethnic movements and politics in the Third World It provides academics and researchers with background knowledge of how the Baloch Sindhi and Mohajir ethnic conflict in Pakistan took shape in a historical context as well as probable future scenarios of the relationship between the Pakistani state and government and ethnic groups and movements
