Young Adults Joan L. Knickerbocker,2017-03-15 Young adults are actively looking for anything that connects them with the changes happening in their lives and the books discussed throughout Literature for Young Adults have the potential to make that connection and motivate them to read It explores a great variety of works genres and formats but it places special emphasis on contemporary works whose nontraditional themes protagonists and literary conventions make them well suited to young adult readers It also looks at the ways in which contemporary readers access and share the works they re reading and it shows teachers ways to incorporate nontraditional ways of accessing and sharing books throughout their literature programs In addition to traditional genre chapters Literature for Young Adults includes chapters on literary nonfiction poetry short stories and drama cover art picture books illustrated literature and graphic novels and film It recognizes that while films can be used to complement print literature they are also a literacy format in their own right and one that young adults are particularly familiar and comfortable with The book s discussion of literary language including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their students and others when communicating about books It will help readers teach young adults the language they need to articulate their responses to the books they are reading Integrating Literature in the Content Areas Sharon Kane,2017-05-12 This practical accessible resource will help future and practicing teachers integrate literature into their middle school or high school classrooms while also addressing content area standards and improving the literacy skills of their students Two introductory chapters are followed by five chapters that each cover a different genre Chapter 3 Informational Books Chapter 4 Fiction Chapter 5 Biography Autobiography and Memoir Chapter 6 Poetry and Chapter 7 How to and Hands on Books Each genre chapter consists of four parts Part 1 Discusses the genre and how content area teachers can use books within that genre to further content learning and enhance literacy skills Part 2 Offers hands on instructional strategies and activities using literature with activities for use in a variety of disciplines Part 3 Presents individual author studies three or four per chapter with bibliographies and guidelines for using the authors books in content area courses Part 4 Features an annotated bibliography of specially selected children and young adult literature for that genre organized by content area The annotations provide information about the book which can be used to prepare booktalks and teaching ideas for using in a specific content area Altogether these sections contain more than 600 annotated entries tabbed by subject area including art English language arts languages and culture math and technology music PE health science and social studies history
