ONLINE RENEWAL 2010

The online renewal process will be available online from August 1, 2010, through November 1, 2010. Licenses will expire at midnight on September 30, 2010. BUT, if you're not treating patients, there is a "grace" period during which you can still renew October 1 through November 1 without having to pay a "late fee". The key words are: IF YOU'RE NOT TREATING PATIENTS. We cannot over-stress the fact that if you treat a patient after your license has expired, prior to getting it renewed, you will have a HUGE fine to pay, and your name will be listed on the website, and it will be reported to HIPDB. The Board is serious about this issue of licensees treating patients with an expired license. The fine can be as much as $1,000 per patient treated with an expired license. And your employer will be notified.

If you are audited, you will be notified at the end of your online process, which tells you that you have 10 working days to fax or mail in proof of your CE that you have posted on the renewal form. Please do not send in the original certificate; you need to keep that for future reference; we only need a copy. If audited, we will not send you the renewed license until we receive proof of your continuing education.

Check your license card for the date of your expiration. It may be that you will not need to renew for 2010. If you were licensed from January 1, 2010, to date, your license will not expire until 2011. If you were licensed by exam, you will not be required to have continuing education for your first renewal.

NO APPROVAL FOR CE COURSES AUGUST 1 – NOVEMBER 1, 2010

Due to the overload in this office during the renewal period, the Board has mandated that no courses for continuing education be reviewed or approved during that time. The list of pre-approved on-site and on-line / home study courses is available on our website under Continuing Education. Please go ahead and renew your license and don't wait until the last minute to get it accomplished.
