

This exploded view diagram illustrates the assembly of a mechanical component, likely a pump or valve. The assembly is shown in a vertical orientation, with components numbered 1 through 36. The main body (1) is a cylindrical component with a flange at the top. A central shaft (12) passes through the body. At the top of the shaft, there is a series of components including a nut (21), a washer (22), a seal (23), a spring (24), and a plug (25). The bottom of the assembly features a complex base (36) with various mounting points and a central opening. The diagram is a technical drawing with clear lines and labels.
