Belinda Curwen, 2025-07-17 By the summer of 1940 as France fell and war raged across Europe the invasion of Britain once unthinkable seemed all but inevitable It would take fresh thinking and bold moves to turn the tide of the war a challenge that Churchill and his Cabinet would be set to conquer in no small part due to their formation of a fifth column The Special Operations Executive SOE was soon born its purpose to hamstring the enemy from the shadows Agents drawn from diverse professions and countries were trained in subversion and espionage before being dropped behind enemy lines to mobilise resistance and disrupt the occupying forces From local operations in France and wider Europe SOE's missions would spread worldwide to pave the way for D Day and help halt the Axis war machine in its tracks SOE in 100 Objects picks up the clues they left behind a button compass in Greece a silk map in Burma and follows their trail across land and sea from moonlight flights to high risk missions and ultimately hard won liberation American Export Register, 1980 Government Reports Annual Index, 1980
