Between Time and Space Sulevi Riukulehto, 2015-05-13 In new regional history national states are not seen to play a special role Regions are understood as evolutionary processes in which time and space history and geography are connected in research questions To illustrate the entanglement of time and space in various forms and ages this volume explores regional history from around the globe The editor's review of the various works written under the heading of regional history serves as an introduction to this theme This volume shows how historical events and changes have influenced the reproduction of regions in Czechia it will also highlight how regional identities were manifested in a cultural form in romantic operas of post Napoleonic Europe The historically rich West Wits Line gold mining region in the West Rand of South Africa is also examined within a regional history framework with the broad theme of ecohealth and well being Through case studies the volume also explores the history of governance and planning in New Zealand s largest city region Auckland as well as the recent economic history of the State of Mato Grosso in Brazil Finally it also brings the idea of regional history to the most personal level of historical consciousness by examining the experiential shaping of home in the broader meaning of Heimat as a question of belonging somewhere both in time and in space

Large Meteorite Impacts and Planetary Evolution

VI Wolf Uwe Reimold,Christian Koeberl,2021-09-23 This volume contains a sizable suite of contributions dealing with regional impact records Australia Sweden impact craters and impactites early Archean impacts and geophysical characteristics of impact structures shock metamorphic investigations post impact hydrothermalism and structural geology and morphometry of impact structures on Earth and Mars

Between Crime and War Claire Oakes Finkelstein,Jens David Ohlin,Christopher J. Fuller,Mitt Regan,2023 The threat posed by the recent rise of transnational non state armed groups does not fit easily within either of the two basic paradigms for state responses to violence The civilian paradigm focuses on the interception of demonstrable immediate threats to the safety of others The military paradigm focuses on threats posed by collective actors who pose a danger to the state s ability to maintain basic social order and at times the state The book suggests that we need not see the options as confined to this binary choice as it evaluates the philosophical and ethical implications of using both military and non military frameworks for pursuing counterterrorism operations

Politics By Other Means Richard Abel,2015-12-22 Politics by Other Means explores the fundamental question of how law can constrain political power by offering a pathbreaking account of the triumphant final decade of the struggle against apartheid Richard Abel presents case studies of ten major legal campaigns including challenges to pass laws black trade union demands for recognition state terror censorship resistance to the independent homelands and treason trials

Inequality Studies from the Global South David Francis,Imraan Valodia,Edward Webster,2020-05-04 This book offers an innovative interdisciplinary approach to thinking about inequality and to understanding how inequality is produced and reproduced in the global South Without the safety net of the various Northern welfare states inequality in the global South is not merely a socio economic problem but an existential threat to the social contract that underpins the democratic state and society itself Only a response that is firmly grounded in the context of the global South can hope to address this problem This collection brings together scholars from across the globe with a particular focus on the global South to address broad thematic areas such as the conceptual and methodological challenges of measuring inequality the political economy of inequality in the global South inequality in work households and the labour market and inequalities in land spaces and cities The book concludes by suggesting alternatives for addressing inequality in the global South and around the world The pioneering ideas and theories put forward by this volume make it essential reading for students and researchers of global inequality across the fields of sociology economics law politics global studies and development studies

Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. 2015 Vaal University Of Technology Applicationform : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. 2015 Vaal University Of Technology Applicationform : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. 2015 Vaal University Of Technology Applicationform : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
