Women Representation in Governance in Nigeria Prof. Abubakar O. Sulaiman, 2025-06-16 Despite accounting for 49 47% of the Nigerian population progress towards gender equity and women s empowerment in Nigeria has remained low in contrast to the Sustainable Development Goals SDG Target 5 5 In light of this NILDS under the leadership of Prof Abubakar O Sulaiman and with support from the management of the National Assembly is creating a platform for intellectual discourse and engagements on women socio economic and political empowerment The NILDS International Conference on Women in Governance provided a platform for experts government officials policymakers and other relevant stakeholder across Africa to discuss the challenges that women face in political participation and governance in Nigeria and Africa at large This ultimately led to this evidence based scientific reader that contributes to the corpus of literature in Africa

Promoting sustainable local economic development initiatives Marius Venter, 2022 This book endeavours to outline case studies that promote sustainable Local Economic Development LED initiatives It is generally believed that local governments are the foot soldiers of LED However this seems to be a myth as local governments in South Africa and elsewhere have not yet fulfilled this mandate and have been struggling for several years to implement LED initiatives The distinctive merit of this book lies in the way it combines the South African context with the wider international development context in ways that there is a flow of information and ideas both ways The book is an essential part of this sequence of ideas development and action at a critical time for strategic action directed at a sustainable future It showcases case studies and responses to the impacts of globalisation as a bridge between urban rural and institutional action and reveals avenues for local government leadership in communities research student engagement and wider interactions
