Gender, Sexuality and Migration in South Africa Ingrid Palmayr, 2017-01-25 This book analyzes the intersections of gender sexuality and migration in the South African context It takes the form of a series of empirically informed reflections on the ways that these issues have come together and analyses the place that South Africa holds in increasingly global and globally constrained discourses around migration This means that it is not just about gendered movement or abuses faced by sexual minorities it is about the ways in which gendered notions which may or may not map onto different bodies function in conversations on migration The author challenges assumptions about what and who migrants are and the nature of their genders and sexualities which have circumscribed the fierce debates about migration that are currently raging in the country This does not mean however that it is simply a book about South Africa Rather the author argues that global and local imperatives are constantly being negotiated as South Africa goes through a period of socio political transition This thought provoking work will appeal to students and scholars of migration studies gender studies and race studies as well as disciplines such as sociology psychology and political studies

The Fourth Gospel and the Manufacture of Minds in Ancient Historiography, Biography, Romance, and Drama Tyler Smith, 2019-03-27 The Fourth Gospel and the Manufacture of Minds in Ancient Historiography Biography Romance and Drama is the first book length study of genre and character cognition in the Gospel of John Informed by traditions of ancient literary criticism and the emerging discipline of cognitive narratology Tyler Smith argues that narrative genres have generalizable patterns for representing cognitive material and that this has profound implications for how readers make sense of cognitive content woven into the narratives they encounter After investigating conventions for representing cognition in ancient historiography biography romance and drama Smith offers an original account of how these conventions illuminate the Johannine narrative s enigmatic cognitive dimension a rich tapestry of love and hate belief and disbelief recognition and misrecognition understanding and misunderstanding knowledge ignorance desire and motivation

Freedom of Religious Organizations Jane Calderwood Norton,2016 Introduction Membership Employment Property disputes The family Goods and services Conclusion A History of Emotion in Western Music Michael Spitzer,2020 This landmark book not only offers the first account of the history of emotion in Western music with a broad sweep from Gregorian chant to Beyoncé but also lays out an original theory for understanding musical emotion that centers the work of composers and performers Plutarch's >Parallel Lives Chrysanthos S. Chrysanthou,2018-02-19 In the Parallel Lives Plutarch does not absolve his readers of the need for moral reflection by offering any sort of hard and fast rules for their moral judgement Rather he uses strategies to elicit readers active engagement with the act of judging This book drawing on the insights of recent narrative theories especially narratology and reader response criticism examines Plutarch's narrative techniques in the Parallel Lives of drawing his readers into the process of moral evaluation and exposing them to the complexities entailed in it Subjects discussed include Plutarch's prefatory projection of himself and his readers and the interaction between the two Plutarch's presentation of the mental and emotional workings of historical agents which serves to re-enact the participants experience at the time and thus arouse empathy in the readers Plutarch's closural strategies and their profound effects on the readers moral inquiry Plutarch's principles of historical criticism in On the malice of Herodotus in relation to his narrative strategies in the Lives Through illustrating Plutarch's narrative technique this book elucidates Plutarch's praise and blame rhetoric in the Lives as well as his sensibility to the challenges inherent in recounting reading about and evaluating the lives of the great men of history Fearmongering in Greek and Roman Literature and

Beyond Priscilla Gontijo Leite, Ian Worthington, 2025-08-25 This volume provides for the first time a focused study of scare tactics and fearmongering in a broad range of Greek and Roman authors and genres showing how alarmist tactics were used in both antiquity and today Scare tactic rhetoric is a timely topic fear in current politics can justify actions and decisions and be used to control what is debated in the public arena with the truth often shaped and even removed from what was being said The ancient world was no different In this volume an international selection of scholars discusses how and why alarmist tactics were used in a variety of genres in Greco Roman literature including oratory historiography drama philosophy and children s stories to convey political messages and ideas They also draw parallels between ancient and contemporary fear Fearmongering in Greek and Roman Literature and Beyond is suitable for students and scholars in Classics and Ancient History Rhetoric and Rhetorical Theory Ancient Societies and Politics as well as those operating in adjacent fields of study along with the general reader interested in the ancient world psychology politics and the exploitation of rhetoric Battles and Generals: Combat, Culture, and Didacticism in Procopius' Wars Conor Whately, 2016-03-17 In Battles and Generals Combat Culture and Didacticism in Procopius Wars Whately reads Procopius descriptions of combat through the lens of didacticism arguing that one of Procopius intentions was to construct those accounts not only so that they might be entertaining to his audience but also so that they might provide real value to his readership which was comprised in part of the empire s military command In the course of this analysis we discover that the varied battles and sieges that Procopius describes are not generic rather they have been crafted to reflect the nature of combat as understood by Procopius on the three fronts of Justinian s wars the frontier with Persia Vandal north Africa and Gothic Italy Developments in Engineering Geology M.J. Eggers, J.S. Griffiths, S. Parry, M.G. Culshaw, 2016-10-12 Developments in Engineering Geology is a showcase of the diversity in the science and practice of engineering geology All branches of geology are applicable to solving engineering problems and this presents a wide frontier of scientific opportunity to engineering geology In practice diversity represents a different set of challenges with the distinctive character of the profession derived from the crossover between the disciplines of geology and engineering This book emphasizes the importance of understanding the geological science behind the engineering behaviour of a soil or rock It also highlights a continuing expansion in the practice areas of engineering geology and illustrates how this is opening new frontiers to the profession thereby introducing new knowledge and technology across a range of applications This is initiating an evolution in the way geology is modelled in engineering geohazard and environmental studies in modern and traditional areas of engineering geology Misinformation,

Disinformation, and Propaganda in Greek Historiography Thomas Figueira, Rosaria Vignolo Munson, 2024-12-12 Mindful of the present state of discourse on ancient Greek historiography this edited volume explores the major themes of pursuing factuality managing witness source bias falling into historical error and creating or confronting propaganda Even the greatest ancient historians striving for factuality and truthfulness must commence from subjectivity Their works when studied closely reveal biases and conceptual or ideological distortions their own and others For this reason Misinformation Disinformation and Propaganda in Greek Historiography strives to evaluate the issues which stand in the way of factuality in historical texts and records The contributors all experts in the field explore and question the accuracy of the historiography in question the ancient author s fidelity to their sources and the evidence presented in relation to inherited oral traditions In this way an ancient author s methodology is evaluated in terms of its probability the awareness of its cultural variation and the influences which we can deduce within the texts This volume presents an important contribution to the study of what constitutes fact and fiction within ancient Greek historiography

The Politics of Viewing in Xenophon's Historical Narratives Rosie Harman, 2023-01-12 This book considers cultural identity and power relations in early fourth century BCE Greece through a reading of Xenophon's historical narratives the Hellenica Anabasis and Cyropaedia These texts depict conflicts between Greek states conflicts between Greeks and non Greeks and relations between the elite individual and society In all three texts politically significant moments are imagined in visual terms We witness spectacles of Spartan military victory vistas of Asian landscape or displays of Persian imperial pomp and historical protagonists are presented as spectators viewing and responding to events Through this visual form of narration the reader is encouraged imaginatively to place themselves in the position of the historical protagonists In viewing events from different perspectives and therefore occupying multiple often conflicting political positions the reader not only experiences the problems faced by historical actors but becomes engaged in the political conflicts acted out in the narratives The reader is prompted to take pleasure in the sight of Panhellenic achievement but also to witness the divisions and conflicts between Greeks on class and ethnic lines Similarly the reader is invited to identify with spectacular Greek and non Greek figures of power as emblems of Greek imperial potential but also to see through the eyes of those communities subjugated at their hands The depiction of spectacles and spectators draws the reader into an active participation in the ideological contradictions of their time in a period when Panhellenic aspiration co existed with hegemonic competition between Greek states and when Greeks could be both beneficiaries and victims of imperialism

Public Scholarship in Communication Studies Thomas J. Billard, Silvio Waisbord, 2024-03-26 Prometheus brought the gift of enlightenment to humanity and suffered for his benevolence This collection takes on scholars' Promethean view of themselves as selfless bringers of light and instead offers a new vision of public scholarship as service to society Thomas J. Billard and Silvio Waisbord curate essays from a wide range of specialties within the study of communication Aimed at scholars and students alike the contributors use approaches from critical meditations to case studies to how to guides as they explore the possibilities of seeing shared knowledge not as a gift to be granted but as an imperative urging readers to address the problems of the world Throughout the volume the works show that a pivot to ideas of scholarship as public service is already underway in corners of communication studies across the country Visionary and provocative Public Scholarship in Communication Studies proposes a needed reconsideration of knowledge and a roadmap to its integration with community Contributors Elaine Almeida Becca Beets Thomas J Billard Danielle K Brown Aymar Jean Christian Stacey L Connaughton Paula Gardner Larry Gross Amy Jordan Daniel Kreiss Rachel Kuo Susan Mancino Shannon C McGregor Philip M Napoli Todd P Newman Srividya Ramasubramanian Chad Raphael Sue Robinson Silvio Waisbord Yidong Wang and Holley Wilkin Heart Disease and Climate Change Simon Stewart, 2024-11-26 This Open Access book describes how the aging populations of high income countries and younger more vulnerable populations living in low to middle income countries are increasingly affected by cardiac events including hospitalisation and premature mortality that do not occur randomly Instead they rise and fall in response to climatic conditions This relationship represents a complex bio behavioral interaction between individuals at risk of experiencing an acute cardiovascular event and their environment Unfortunately expert guidelines and epidemiological reports ignore this fundamental fact cardiac events in nearly every country fluctuate with predictable climatic transitions seasons and random external provocations including noise and air pollution plus unseasonal cold snaps and heat waves Climate change in the form of more unpredictable weather including more sustained heat waves will only exacerbate the problem especially among the world's poorest people Heart Disease and Climate Change articulates why this phenomenon occurs how climate change is likely to exacerbate the problem thereby harming economies stifling Development Goals and what we need to do to mitigate the impact of climate change on heart health It identifies key areas for future research reporting of cardiac events and hence is an essential reference for all interested in the management of patients in cardiovascular medicine from cardiologists internists and primary care physicians to healthcare administrators climate researchers and politicians
