Goffin, Edward Helmes, 2012-12-06 The assessment of individual differences has generated shockwaves affecting sociology education and a number of other behavioral sciences as well as the fields of management and organizational behavior In covering the assessment of individual differences this book pays tribute to the interests and activities that Douglas N Jackson has incorporated into his career as a psychologist He continues to be a leader in putting academic findings to practical use He has also inspired generations of students with his mastery of complex concepts and as a personal example of the ability to balance several simultaneous areas of research Consistent with the focus of Jackson s research the theme of this book will be how the use of deductive construct driven strategies in the assessment of individual differences leads to benefits in terms of the applicability of the assessment instruments and the clarity of the conclusions that can be drawn from the research Selected Water Resources Abstracts ,1978 Social Sciences Index ,1996 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1899 Learning Patterns in Higher Education David Gijbels, Vincent Donche, John T. E. Richardson, Jan D. Vermunt, 2013-09-11 Learning Patterns in Higher Education brings together a cutting edge international team of contributors to critically review our current understanding of how students and adults learn how differences and changes in the way students learn can be measured in a valid and reliable way and how the quality of student learning may be enhanced There is substantial evidence that students in higher education have a characteristic way of learning sometimes called their learning orientation Biggs 1988 learning style Evans et al 2010 or learning pattern Vermunt and Vermetten 2004 However recent research in the field of student learning has resulted in multi faceted and sometimes contradictory results which may reflect conceptual differences and differences in measurement of student learning in each of the studies This book deals with the need for further clarification of how students learn in higher education in the 21st century and to what extent the measurements often used in learning pattern studies are still up to date or can be advanced with present methodological and statistical insights to capture the most important differences and changes in student learning The contributions in the book are organized in two parts a first conceptual and psychological part in which the dimensions of student learning in the 21st century are discussed and a second empirical part in which questions related to how students learning can be measured and how it develops are considered Areas covered include Cultural influences on learning patterns Predicting learning outcomes Student centred learning environments and self directed learning Mathematics learning This indispensable book covers multiple conceptual perspectives on how learning patterns can be described and effects and developments can be measured and will not only be helpful for learning researchers as such but also for educational researchers from the broad domain of educational psychology motivation psychology and instructional sciences who are interested in student motivation self regulated learning effectiveness of innovative learning environments as well as assessment and evaluation of student characteristics and learning process variables Energy Conservation Update ,1978 Cumulated Index Medicus ,1979
