Architectural Drawing Second Edition David Dernie, 2014-10-06 This book focuses on the exciting possibilities for representing the built environment with techniques ranging from pencil sketching to computers It teaches students the following skills how to draw using a range of media the basic rules of making effective spatial images and how to express ideas through appropriate media and forms of communication Following a revised and expanded introduction the book is divided into three sections Media Types and Places Each section is illustrated with exemplary drawings and accompanying commentaries Step by step sequences and practical tips will further help students to make the most of their newly acquired skills The second edition includes more on a variety of techniques particularly digital and new artworks from practising architects making it an indispensable practical and inspirational resource Exercises in Architecture Simon

Unwin, 2022-08-01 This revised edition of Exercises in Architecture Learning to Think as an Architect is full of new content building on the success of the previous edition All the original exercises have been revised and new ones added with the format changing to allow the inclusion of more supplementary material The aim remains the same to help pre or early course architecture students begin and develop their ability to think as architects Learning to do architecture is tricky It involves awakening abilities that remain dormant in most people It is like learning language for the first time a task made more mystifying by the fact that architecture deals not in words but in places places to stand to walk to sit to hide to sleep to cook to eat to work to play to worship This book was written for those who want to be architects It suggests a basis for early experiences in a school of architecture but it could also be used in secondary schools and colleges or as self directed preparation for students in the months before entering professional education Exercises in Architecture builds on and supplements the methodology for architectural analysis presented in the author's previous book Analysing Architecture the Universal Language of Place Making fifth edition 2021 and demonstrated in his Twenty Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand Routledge 2015 Together the three books deal with the three aspects of learning any creative discipline 1 Analysing Architecture provides a methodology for analysis that develops an understanding of the way architecture works 2 Twenty Five Buildings explores and extends that methodology through analysis of examples as case studies and 3 Exercises in Architecture offers a way of expanding understanding and developing fluency by following a range of rudimentary and more sophisticated exercises Those who wish to become professional architects wherever in the world they might be must make a conscious effort to learn the universal language of architecture as place making to explore its powers and how they might be used The exercises in this book are designed to help The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design

Graeme Brooker,Lois Weinthal,2017-01-26 This handbook offers a compelling collection of original essays that seek to examine the shifting role of interior architecture and interior design and their importance and meaning within the contemporary world The Innovative Use of Materials in Architecture and Landscape Architecture

Caren Yglesias,2014-02-21 This book is about materials The fundamental properties and technical aspects are reviewed within a context of a material s history the theories of its meaning and making and its use Information about the sustainability aspects of each material is included as a critical necessity in construction Innovative design comes from an understanding of materials for what they are how they have been used in the past and how they can support human activity The author provides essential information to students and professionals concerned with advancing their design at a time when the consumption of natural resources and the consequences of wasteful practices are of urgent concern Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Architectural Drawing ,1993 Walking Cities:

London Jasper Joseph-Lester,Simon King,Amy Blier-Carruthers,Roberto Bottazzi,2020-05-12 Walking Cities London second edition brings together a new interdisciplinary field of artists writers architects musicians human geographers and philosophers to consider how a city walk informs and triggers new processes of making thinking researching and communicating In particular the book examines how the city contains narratives knowledge and contested materialities that are best accessed through the act of walking The varied contributions take the form of short stories illustrated essays personal reflections and accounts of walks both real and fictional While artist and RCA tutor Rut Blees Luxemburg and philosopher Jean Luc Nancy recount a nocturnal journey from Shoreditch to the City of London architect Peter St John of the practice Caruso St John offers a detailed and personal reflection on the Holloway Road and architect and author Douglas Murphy examines what he calls London s more politically charged locations in his account of a solitary walk through an area of South London Ultimately Walking Cities London seeks to understand the wider significance of changing geographies to generate critical questions and creative perspectives for navigating the social and political impact of rapid urban change
