Competing for Excellence in Architecture

Jean-Pierre Chupin, 2017-10-01 A travel guide for those in search of architectural quality this book can be browsed in many ways Written in a clear and concise manner by about thirty authors it features a collection of editorials from the Canadian Competitions Catalogue CCC a large online digital archive open to the public since 2006 The editorials explore more than sixty Canadian architecture competitions held in the last seventy years Especially in recent years both public and private institutions have organized competitions across Canada producing hundreds of architectural urban planning and landscape design projects Together these proposals most of which remain unbuilt constitute a fantastic treasure in our tangible and intangible common heritage Given that competition organizers designers juries and critics never operate alone there is no doubt whatsoever that this book results from the collaboration of a myriad of people contributing to and competing for excellence in architecture Includes 497 illustrations and analytical tables

The Sociology of Childhood and Youth in Canada

Xiaobei Chen, Rebecca Raby, Patrizia Albanese, 2017-12-12 The sociology of childhood and youth has sparked international interest in recent years and yet a reader highlighting Canadian work in this field has been long overdue Filling this gap in the literature The Sociology of Childhood and Youth in Canada brings together cutting edge Canadian scholarship in this important and growing discipline Thought provoking and timely this edited collection explores a breadth of essential topics including research on and with children and youth the social construction of childhood and youth intersecting identities and citizenship rights and social engagement With a focus on social justice the contributing authors critically examine various sites of inequality in the lives of children and young people such as gender sexuality colonialism race class and disability Encouraging further development of Canadian scholarship in the sociology of childhood and youth this unique collection ensures that young people's voices are heard by involving them in the research process. Pedagogical supports including learning objectives, study questions, suggested research assignments, and a comprehensive glossary make this volume an invaluable resource for students of childhood and youth studies in Canada.

The Disengaged Teen Jenny Anderson, Rebecca Winthrop, 2025-01-07 Our education systems are shortchanging far too many teenagers. This book is brimming with insights on how to change that. It's an engaging, evidence-based and practical read about how to develop a generation of lifelong learners.

Adam Grant 1 New York Times bestselling author of Hidden Potential and Think Again and host of the podcast ReThinking. A powerful toolkit for parents of both checked-out and stressed-out teens that shows exactly what to do and stop doing to support their academic and emotional flourishing.

Adolescents are hardwired to explore and grow, and learning is mainly how they do this. But a shocking majority of teens are disengaged from school simultaneously bored and overwhelmed. This is feeding an alarming teen mental health crisis. As kids get older and more independent, parents often feel powerless to help. But fear not: there are evidence-backed strategies to guide them from disengagement to drive in and out of school.

For the past five years, award-winning journalist Jenny Anderson and the Brookings Institution's global education expert Rebecca Winthrop have been investigating why so many children lose their love of learning in adolescence. Now weaving extensive original research with real-world stories of kids who transformed their relationships with learning, they identify four modes of learning that students use to navigate through the shifting academic demands and social dynamics of middle and high school, shaping the internal narratives about their skills, potential, and identity.

Resister When kids resist, they struggle silently with profound feelings of inadequacy or invisibility, which they communicate by ignoring homework, playing sick, skipping class, or acting out.

Passenger When kids coast along consistently doing the bare minimum and complaining that classes are pointless. They need help connecting school to their skills, interests, or learning needs.

Achiever When kids show up, do the work, and get consistently high grades, their self-worth can become tied to high performance. Their disengagement is invisible, fueling a fear of failure and putting them at risk for mental health challenges.

Explorer When kids are driven by internal curiosity rather than just external expectations, they investigate the questions they care about and persist to achieve their goals.

Understanding your child's learning modes is vital for nurturing their ability to become Explorers.

Anderson and Winthrop outline simple yet counterintuitive parenting strategies for connecting with your child, tailoring your listening and communication styles to their needs, igniting their curiosity, and building self-awareness and emotional regulation.

Gaming and Cognition: Theories and Practice from the Learning Sciences Van Eck, Richard, 2010-05-31 This book applies the principles of research in the study of human cognition to games, with chapters representing 15 different disciplines in the learning sciences: psychology, serious game design, educational technology, applied linguistics, instructional design, eLearning, computer engineering, educational psychology, cognitive science, digital media, human computer interaction, artificial intelligence, computer science, anthropology, education.
