Architecture On The Edge Of Postmodernism Collected Essays 1968:

Architecture on the Edge of Postmodernism Robert A. M. Stern, 2009 Robert A M Stern is one of contemporary architecture's most influential figures with a career encompassing every facet of the profession he has a flourishing private practice he is a noted authority on New York architectural history his own architectural work has been featured in numerous monographs and as Dean of the Yale School of Architecture he has undeniably shaped the field of architectural education As a preeminent force in the discourse of the field Stern was one of the first critics to use and analyze the term postmodern in architecture This collection of essays Stern's first brackets the years defined by the changes in architectural thinking introduced by Robert Venturi in 1966 and the exhibition Deconstructivist Architecture at the Museum of Modern Art in 1988 Throughout Stern provides close readings of architectural events and offers firsthand accounts of transformations in architectural thinking during a critical period

The Story of Post-Modernism Charles Jencks, 2012-05-25 In The Story of Post Modernism Charles Jencks the authority on Post Modern architecture and culture provides the defining account of Post Modern architecture from its earliest roots in the early 60s to the present day By breaking the narrative into seven distinct chapters which are both chronological and overlapping Jencks charts the ebb and flow of the movement the peaks and troughs of different ideas and themes The book is highly visual As well as providing a chronological account of the movement each chapter also has a special feature on the major works of a given period The first up to date narrative of Post Modern Architecture other major books on the subject were written 20 years ago An accessible narrative that will appeal to students who are new to the subject as well as those who can remember its heyday in the 70s and 80s

Resisting Postmodern Architecture Stylianos Giamarellos, 2022-01-10 Since its first appearance in 1981 critical regionalism has enjoyed a celebrated worldwide reception The 1990s increased its pertinence as an architectural theory that defends the cultural identity of a place resisting the homogenising onslaught of globalisation Today its main principles such as acknowledging the climate history materials culture and topography of a specific place are integrated in architects education across the globe But at the same time the richer cross cultural history of critical regionalism has been reduced to schematic juxtapositions of the global with the local Retrieving both the globalising branches and the overlooked cross cultural roots of critical regionalism Resisting Postmodern Architecture resituates critical regionalism within the wider framework of debates around postmodern architecture the diverse contexts from which it emerged and the cultural media complex that conditioned its reception In so doing it explores the intersection of three areas of growing historical and theoretical interest postmodernism critical regionalism and globalisation Based on more than 50 interviews and previously unpublished archival material from six countries the book transgresses existing barriers to integrate sources in other languages into anglophone architectural scholarship In so doing it shows how the periphery was not just a passive recipient but also an active generator of architectural theory and practice Stylianos Giamarellos challenges long held central notions of supposedly international discourses of the recent past and outlines critical regionalism as an unfinished project apposite for the 21st century on the fronts of architectural theory history and historiography

Architecture Theory since 1968 K. Michael Hays, 2000-02-28
 An anthology of the pivotal theoretical texts that have defined architecture culture in the late twentieth century In the discussion of architecture there is a prevailing sentiment that since 1968 cultural production in its traditional sense can no longer be understood to rise spontaneously as a matter of social course but must now be constructed through ever more self-conscious theoretical procedures The development of interpretive modes of various stripes post structuralist Marxian phenomenological psychoanalytic as well as others dissenting or eccentric has given scholars a range of tools for rethinking architecture in relation to other fields and for reasserting architecture's general importance in intellectual discourse This anthology presents forty seven of the primary texts of architecture theory introducing each with an explication of the concepts and categories necessary for its understanding and evaluation It also presents twelve documents of projects or events that had major theoretical repercussions for the period Several of the essays appear here in English for the first time Contributors Diana Agrest Stanford Anderson Archizoom George Baird Jennifer Bloomer Massimo Cacciari Jean Louis Cohen Beatriz Colomina Alan Colquhoun Maurice Culot Jacques Derrida Ignasi de Sol Morales Peter Eisenman Robin Evans Michel Foucault Kenneth Frampton Mario Gandelsonas Frank Gehry Jürgen Habermas John Hejduk Denis Hollier Bernard Huet Catherine Ingraham Fredric Jameson Charles A Jencks Jeffrey Kipnis Fred Koetter Rem Koolhaas Leon Krier Sanford Kwinter Henri Lefebvre Daniel Libeskind Mary McLeod Alberto Pérez Gómez Jos Quetglas Aldo Rossi Colin Rowe Massimo Scolari Denise Scott Brown Robert Segrest Jorge Silvetti Robert Somol Martin Steinmann Robert A M Stern James Stirling Manfredo Tafuri Georges Teyssot Bernard Tschumi Anthony Vidler Paul Virilio Mark Wigley

Handbook of the American Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Timo Müller, 2017-01-11
 Increasing specialization within the discipline of English and American Studies has shifted the focus of scholarly discussion toward theoretical reflection and cultural contexts These developments have benefitted the discipline in more ways than one but they have also resulted in a certain neglect of close reading As a result students and researchers interested in such material are forced to turn to scholarship from the 1960s and 1970s much of which relies on dated methodological and ideological presuppositions The handbook aims to fill this gap by providing new readings of texts that figure prominently in the literature classroom and in scholarly debate from James's The Ambassadors to McCarthy's The Road These readings do not revert naively to a time before theory Instead they distill the insights of literary and cultural theory into concise introductions to the historical background the themes the formal strategies and the reception of influential literary texts and they do so in a jargon free language accessible to readers on all levels of qualification

An Introduction to Architectural Theory Harry Francis Mallgrave, David J. Goodman, 2011-03-16
 A sharp and lively text that covers issues in depth but not to the point that they become inaccessible to beginning students An Introduction to Architectural Theory is the first narrative history of this period charting the veritable revolution in architectural thinking that has taken place as well as the implications of this intellectual upheaval The first comprehensive and critical history of architectural theory over the last fifty years surveys the intellectual history of architecture since 1968 including criticisms of high modernism the rise of postmodern and poststructural theory critical regionalism and tectonics Offers a comprehensive overview of the significant changes that architectural thinking has undergone in the past fifteen years Includes an analysis of where architecture stands and where it will likely move in the coming years The

Postmodern Turn Steven Best,Douglas Kellner,1997-01-01 This book presents a groundbreaking analysis of the emergence of a postmodern paradigm in theory the arts science and politics From the authors of Postmodern Theory the much acclaimed introduction to key postmodern thinkers and themes The Postmodern Turn ranges over diverse intellectual and artistic terrain from architecture painting literature music and politics to the physical and biological sciences Critically engaging postmodern theory and culture Steven Best and Douglas Kellner illuminate our momentous transition between a modernist past and a future struggling to define itself Late Modernism Tyrus Miller,1999-02-25 The late modernists

were the ones who let down the side they saw the wave of the future the erosion of literary and political borders and they let the world in and so distinguished themselves from the refinements of the early modernists This is the first book to make this fascinating distinction and to highlight this aspect of intellectual history and to situate Mina Loy Djuna Barnes Wyndham Lewis and Samuel Beckett at this critical juncture The New Monuments and the End of Man Robert Slifkin,2019-11-05 How leading American artists reflected on the fate of humanity in the nuclear era through monumental sculpture In the wake of the atomic bombings of Japan in 1945 artists in the United States began to question what it meant to create a work of art in a world where humanity could be rendered extinct by its own hand The New Monuments and the End of Man examines how some of the most important artists of postwar America revived the neglected tradition of the sculptural monument as a way to grapple with the cultural and existential anxieties surrounding the threat of nuclear annihilation Robert Slifkin looks at such iconic works as the industrially evocative welded steel sculptures of David Smith the austere structures of Donald Judd and the desolate yet picturesque earthworks of Robert Smithson Transforming how we understand this crucial moment in American art he traces the intersections of postwar sculptural practice with cybernetic theory science fiction cinema and literature and the political debates surrounding nuclear warfare Slifkin identifies previously unrecognized affinities of the sculpture of the 1940s and 1950s with the minimalism and land art of the 1960s and 1970s and acknowledges the important contributions of postwar artists who have been marginalized until now such as Raoul Hague Peter Grippe and Robert Mallary Strikingly illustrated throughout The New Monuments and the End of Man spans the decades from Hiroshima to the Fall of Saigon when the atomic bomb cast its shadow over American art Fashion at the Edge Caroline Evans,Caroline

Edwards,2003-01-01 Caroline Evans analyses the work of experimental designers the images of fashion photographers and the spectacular fashion shows that developed in the final decade of the twentieth century to arrive at a new understanding of fashion's dark side and what it signifies Drawing on a variety of literary and theoretical perspectives from Marx to Benjamin Evans argues that fashion plays a leading role in constructing images and meanings during periods of rapid change She shows persuasively that fashion stands at the very centre of the contemporary where it voices some of Western culture's deepest concerns
