Architecture Is a Social Act Sinéad Finnerty-Pyne, Greg Goldin, Lorcan O'Herlihy, 2020-10-08 Good architecture is no longer about simply designing a building as an isolated object but about meeting head on the forces that are shaping today's world Architecture Is a Social Act Lorcan O'Herlihy Architects LOHA addresses how the discipline can be used as a tool to engage in politics economics aesthetics and smart growth by promoting social equity human interaction and cultural evolution The book features 28 projects drawn across LOHA's nearly 30 year history a selection that underscores the direct connection between the development of consciously designed buildings and wider efforts to tackle issues that are relevant in a rapidly changing world LOHA's projects range from tiny Santa Monica storefronts to vast urban plans in Detroit Michigan and Raleigh North Carolina From activating main streets to designing housing of all shapes and sizes to bringing hope to the homeless to developing strategic plans for the future growth of cities all of the work featured is represented within a larger social framework Each case study is evidence of LOHA's mastery of scale form light and space that gives people a true sense of place and belonging Architecture Is a Social Act Lorcan O Herlihy Architects LOHA points the way ahead for both people and architecture Features A collection of 28 projects completed over nearly three decades gives readers thorough insight both visually and conceptually into the work of LA and Detroit based firm Lorcan O Herlihy Architects An important contribution in a post pandemic world the book's main goal is to spark creative ideas and important questions about how architecture can be used in political engagement smart growth and social structures in order to improve our urban landscapes and elevate the human condition Texts by O Herlihy Foreword Frances Anderton Introduction Sin ad Finnerty Pyne and Greg Goldin project narratives and Afterword are accompanied by illustrations and renderings by LOHA and photography by Iwan Baan Lawrence Anderson Paul Vu and others The book is organized chronologically starting in the 1990s and ending in 2020 and broken up into six sections each representing a tipping point for the practice periods in which LOHA's work was launched in new directions that brought new sets of challenges all of which parallel significant historical events Readers will gain insight into the practice's process when engaging a new project site understanding its history and context and how it is informed by the culture and ecology of the people who live there

Region Simon Richards, Robert Schmidt III, Cagri Sanliturk, Falli Palaiologou, 2023-07-28 This book explores how the concept of region has evolved over time and shaped architectural culture and practice It questions what the words region and regional mean for architecture cities and landscapes past and present and speculates on the forms they might take in the future Region is explored in many thematic guises as a real geographical site of evolving socio economic activity as a mythical locus of enduring value as a gatekeeper of indigenous crafts and vernacular techniques as a site of architectural and artistic imagination as a repository of contested conflicted and mobile identities The contributing chapters take these themes from the theoretical and literary page through to architectural and urban practice and from the scale of the domestic hearth through to the ocean archipelago and international law enriching the long standing trope of viewing architectural regionalism purely as a matter of style Curated into four key thematic areas Theorised Regions Contested Regions Heritage Regions and Future Regions the book incorporates the values concerns and approaches of a truly diverse international community of scholars curators and practitioners as well as the design work of international students tasked to explore what region means to them

The Visibility of Modernization in Architecture Gevork Hartoonian, 2023-07-28 This edited collection explores the visibility of modernization in architecture produced in different capitalist regions across the world and provides readers with a historico theoretical and historico geographical discussion Focusing on a particular building type an influential architect's work as well as relevant texts and documents each chapter addresses the many facets of delay which are central to the problematization of capitalism's progressive dissemination of technological and aesthetic regimes of modernism This collection underlines the centrality of temporality for a critical understanding of colonialism modernism and capitalism The book is primarily concerned with the historical timeline the tangential point when a nation enters modernization processes In exploring modernism in diverse regions such as East Asia Pacific Eastern Europe and Iran each chapter addresses the historiographic and architectonic unfolding of modernization beyond the western hemisphere The exploration of these diverse case studies will be of interest to students of architecture and researchers working on the collision of temporalities and the subject's critical importance for different country's built environments Chapter 13 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Market for Learning Hamish Coates, 2016-10-29 Improving transparency is critical to the future of higher education This book articulates the role and necessity of transparency to creating substantial opportunities for innovation and transformation Current global crises imperil exactly the kinds of progress higher education has helped to create The sector must contribute now like never before But it must put its own house in order first and do a better job conveying its value and transformative potential The book offers a transparency roadmap it reveals the pressures reshaping higher education clarifies the value and nature of transparency examines emerging reporting platforms reviews improvement opportunities for students faculty institutions and systems and forecasts how to engineer important next steps The text synthesises diverse theoretical and empirical perspectives incorporating analysis of quality and productivity academic work and leadership indicators and metrics commercial trends and institutional models as well as student learning and outcomes It creates new futures for higher education by integrating and opening up issues that have been confined largely to insiders

EASYUNI Ultimate University Guide 2017 easyuni Sdn Bhd, A word of advice Always expect the unexpected and never stop trying for the best Whether you're an A grade student or an average one it's never too late nor too early to reflect on and start working towards your dreams The New Year's looming in the distance as well now why not this time around skip past the cliché resolutions and instead aim to build yourself To build yourself wherein you are a force to be reckoned with Where no hurdles will scathe you no frenemy will bring you down Because whether you're 17 or 20 or 25 or even 30 there's always always room to grow To be better to do better And what a better moment to do so than at this current moment in time At this moment in time where you are potentially deciding on the rest of your lives
