PROPHET User's Manual ,1985      Archival Database Specifications for the SHRP Asphalt Research Program David A. Anderson,1991      Cross-national Time-series Data Archive User's Manual Arthur S. Banks,1975      Web Archives and Web Archiving Asger Harlung,2025-04-23 Web archives are repositories of content preserved from the World Wide Web not to be confused with other types of archives that offer services or content online Web archives preserve content that otherwise tends to disappear or change rapidly which probably makes them the most important initiative towards preservation of cultural heritage in our age Never before have the actions ongoing sentiments trends decision processes in politics business and industry institutions news media entertainment providers interest groups and individuals been documented or preserved at the level of detail offered by ongoing and systematic preservation of the Web with content from all levels of society This book strives to present the underlying methods and reasons for preserving web content with a focus on the principles rather than specific methods that may become obsolete almost as quickly as web pages may disappear and on detailing the nature of the archived results with its potentials and pitfalls      Archiving and Climatological Applications of Meteorological Satellite Data John A. Leese,Arthur L. Booth,Fredric A. Godshall,1970 This report describes the meteorological satellite program of the United States the data acquired the applications of the data to climatology the procedures for archiving the data and plans for future meteorological satellites p 1 1      The Lost Archive Marina Rustow,2020-01-14 A compelling look at the Fatimid caliphate s robust culture of documentation The lost archive of the Fatimid caliphate 909 1171 survived in an unexpected place the storage room or geniza of a synagogue in Cairo recycled as scrap paper and deposited there by medieval Jews Marina Rustow tells the story of this extraordinary find inviting us to reconsider the longstanding but mistaken consensus that before 1500 the dynasties of the Islamic Middle East produced few documents and preserved even fewer Beginning with government documents before the Fatimids and paper s westward spread across Asia Rustow reveals a millennial tradition of state record keeping whose very continuities suggest the strength of Middle Eastern institutions not their weakness Tracing the complex routes by which Arabic documents made their way from Fatimid palace officials to Jewish scribes the book provides a rare window onto a robust culture of documentation and archiving not only comparable to that of medieval Europe but in many cases surpassing it Above all Rustow argues that the problem of archives in the medieval Middle East lies not with the region s administrative culture but with our failure to understand preindustrial documentary ecology Illustrated with stunning examples from the Cairo Geniza this compelling book advances our understanding of documents as physical artifacts showing how the records of the Fatimid caliphate once recovered deciphered and studied can help change our thinking about the medieval Islamic world and about premodern polities more broadly      Issuance of Revised NPS Museum Handbook Part II, Appendix D: Museum Archives and Manuscript Collections, 2008 ,2009      Databases & On-line Data in Astronomy M.A Albrecht,D Egret,2012-12-06 Data archiving has

for many years been the most disregarded aspect of all data systems The increase in numbers of telescopes both groundbased and space borne and the increase in efficiency of detectors have generated overwhelming amounts of data Much of these data were and are not used on short timescales and should have been archived where they can be used later and or by others Archiving is essential Objects can change in the course of time New technological or scientific developments might require observing objects again The cost benefit ratio will become more and more important when considering the allocation of telescope time The retrieval of old data can then be crucial At present there are a number of data collections and data retrieval systems This book includes a series of clear and up to date descriptions of many important available data systems For professional astronomers librarians and computer engineers     Crafting History Rachel Goshgarian,Ilham Khuri-Makdisi,Ali Yaycioğlu,2023-03-28 It would not be an overstatement to say that Cemal Kafadar has transformed the field of Ottoman history As a result of his pathbreaking books and articles the field is experiencing a turn within itself as well as recasting its relationship with world history This volume acts as a tribute to Kafadar and the important interdisciplinary work he has both done and inspired in the field In line with the intellectual pluralism that Kafadar has cultivated over his career readers will find a number of articles engaging with a wide range of questions approaches perspectives and sources across Ottoman history Kafadar s students and friends individually or in pairs researched and crafted contributions to this volume with a variety of conceptual premises theoretical approaches and interpretive tools to celebrate his thirty years of teaching research and mentorship in addition to the overwhelming generosity of his intellectual and personal engagement     Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1987
