Enhancing effective public sector governance Audrey H. Legodi, Philna Coetzee, Lourens Erasmus, 2025-04-23 Audit committees are formed to provide impartial advice on matters of governance risk management internal controls and audits performance management compliance and financial reporting It is alarming to see communities deteriorating as a result of poor municipal services despite the fact that existing audit committees serve as independent advisory boards Accountability is key to the success of municipalities individuals opposing the implementation of improved service delivery should be held accountable This book examines the obstacles that hinder audit committees from effectively executing their duties giving a thorough analysis and resolutions to the South African service delivery crisis The book s use of the IQA method reveals overlooked variables that South African municipalities and audit committees must contemplate This methodological contribution results in the construction of a literature framework to substantiate the focus of the study through the identified themes This book offers guidelines for municipal audit committees on executing their roles successfully and ethically It also practically equips regulators including the National Treasury provincial treasuries CoGTA and SALGA with measures to enhance the efficacy of audit committees Professional bodies and Best Practices Guidance bodies may augment their standards and ethical codes to guide members serving on audit committees

Women: Wise, Optimistic, Motivating, Empowering & Nurturing Letlhokwa George Mpedi, 2024-08-05 Women s Day celebrated annually on the 9th of August commemorates the 1956 women s march against the discriminatory pass laws during the apartheid era It was on this day that women from across the nation were led by Helen Joseph Lillian Ngoyi Rahima Moosa and Sophia Williams De Bruyn to the Union Buildings to protest against the oppressive pass laws As SA History describes it The 1956 Women s March played a vital role in women becoming more visible participants in the anti apartheid struggle That is not to say that women were not already playing an instrumental role in the struggle But as history has long demonstrated this is often a forgotten aspect of our narrative This unfortunate omission underscores the importance of reclaiming and preserving these stories weaving them into the broader narrative of societal progress As we reflect on their fight and the impact of their war cry wathint abafazi wathint imbokodo uza kufa which translates to when you strike the women you strike a rock you will be crushed you will die we are given pause to reflect on the progress made in the fight for equality since then We now live in a democratic society where many of our aspirations have been realised Yet there is much we have not managed to achieve To say that South Africa has achieved equality would be a fallacy A grim reality is that in many aspects we have failed women Pay parity underrepresentation in industries unequal access to opportunities disturbing levels of violence sexism and misogyny persist unabated These issues cast a long shadow over our aspirations as a nation This book aims to shed light on these issues while honouring the progress made and highlighting the road ahead The High Treason Club Karin Mitchell, 2025-05-01 On the night of 30 October 2002 eight bomb blasts tore through Soweto leaving one woman dead and damaging vital infrastructure The bombs were the work of a far right white Afrikaner separatist group called the Boeremag whose stated aim was to overthrow the ruling ANC government rid the country of black people and reinstate a new Boer administered republic For months before the bombings police had been investigating the terror group and had made several arrests In December after an intense cross country manhunt the perpetrators of the bombings were finally caught All in all 23 men were arrested and charged with high treason after the police seized explosives homemade pipe bombs weapons and ammunition in arms caches hidden all over the country Dams and Reservoirs under Changing Challenges Anton J. Schleiss, Robert M. Boes, 2011-05-18 In the past boundary conditions in the building of dams have changed as technological developments have been influential on dam planning construction operation and maintenance processes It is ICOLD's mission to not only consider these developments but also adequately deal with environmental aspects and related infrastructure issues

Altered wa Jazz, Blues & Swing , 2007 Spanning some 55 years of music making this collection of photographs documents the musicians and singers who have created the rich heritage of South African jazz Shadow Libraries Joe Karaganis, 2018-05-04 How students get the materials they need as opportunities for higher education expand but funding shrinks From the top down Shadow Libraries explores the institutions that shape the provision of educational materials from the formal sector of universities and publishers to the broadly informal ones organized by faculty copy shops student unions and students themselves It looks at the history of policy battles over access to education in the post World War II era and at the narrower versions that have played out in relation to research and textbooks from library policies to book subsidies to more recently the several open publication models that have emerged in the higher education sector From the bottom up Shadow Libraries explores how simply students get the materials they need It maps the ubiquitous practice of photocopying and what are in many cases the more marginal ones of buying books visiting libraries and downloading from unauthorized sources It looks at the informal networks that emerge in many contexts to share materials from face to face student networks to Facebook groups and at the processes that lead to the consolidation of some of those efforts into more organized archives that circulate offline and sometimes online the shadow libraries of the title If Alexandra Elbakyan's Sci Hub is the largest of these efforts to date the more characteristic part of her story is the prologue the personal struggle to participate in global scientific and educational communities and the recourse to a wide array of ad hoc strategies and networks when formal authorized means are lacking If Elbakyan's story has struck a chord it is in part because it brings this contradiction in the academic project into sharp relief universalist in principle and unequal in practice Shadow Libraries is a study of that tension in the digital era Contributors Bal zs Bod Laura Czerniewicz Mirosław Filiciak Mariana Fossatti Jorge Gemetto Eve Gray Evelin Heidel Joe Karaganis Lawrence Liang Pedro Mizukami Jhessica Reia Alek Tarkowski South

African journal of musicology ,2005 Pluimvee bulletin ,2005 #FeesMustFall and Youth Mobilisation in South Africa
Musawenkosi Ndlovu,2017-07-14 This book examines the historical FeesMustFall FMF university student protests that took place in South Africa and shows how the enduring historical construction representation and conceptualisation of South African youth as typically radical and political contributed to the mis interpretation of FMF protests and led to a discourse on an African National Congress toppling revolution Arguing that the student protests were not the revolutionary movement they have been represented as Ndlovu demonstrates that ideological divisions amongst the protestors the declining economy and reduced youth participation in the political public sphere cannot lead to a new revolution in South African politics This book will be of interest to students and scholars interested in South African politics higher education democracy and protest movements
