November Economics Zimsec Paper 3

Patrick Bond

November Economics Zimsec Paper 3:

Economic Management in a Hyperinflationary Environment George Kararach, Raphael O. Otieno, 2016 This volume provides a political economy analysis of leadership and economic management in crises in developing economies based on Zimbabwe's experience

Zimbabwe Hevina Smith Dashwood, 2000-01-01 Dashwood argues that it was the class interests of the ruling elite of Zimbabwe that explains the failure of the government to devise a coherent socially sensitive development strategy in conjunction with market based reforms

Uneven Zimbabwe Patrick Bond, 1998 Uneven Zimbabwe examines the influence of domestic and international financial markets and financiers in uneven development in Zimbabwe using and contributing to the tools of radical political economy Theoretically Bond begins with criticism of the classical Marxist concepts of finance capital for focusing on institutional characteristics and failing to grasp underlying dynamics Instead as economic crisis tendencies emerge the power of finance periodically intensifies temporarily displacing crisis through time and space and across geographical scales But the limits of the financial solution become evident when paper assets delink from the productive assets they are meant to represent as well as in the role that finance plays in amplifying uneven development across different economic sectors spaces and scales

Making Politics in Zimbabwe's Second Republic Gordon Moyo, Kirk Helliker, 2023-05-16 The book provides a fresh and innovative interpretation of the new government of Zimbabwe led by Emmerson Mnangagwa which emerged in late 2017 after the downfall of Robert Mugabe It demonstrates the contradictory character of the Mnangagwa government involving both continuities and discontinuities in relation to Mugabe's regime The temptation amongst Zimbabwean scholars has been to focus on the continuities and to dismiss the significance of any discontinuities notably reform measures This book adopts an alternative approach by identifying and focusing specifically on the existence of a formative project of the Mnangagwa's Second Republic further analysing its political significance as well as risks and limitations While doing so the book covers topics such as reform measures reconciliation transitional justice corruption the media agriculture devolution and the debt crisis as well as health and education Discussing the limitations of these different reform measures the book highlights that any scholarly failure to identify the risks of the project leads to an incomplete understanding of what constitutes the Mnangagwa's Second Republic The book appeals to students scholars and researchers of Zimbabwean and African studies political science and international relations as well as policymakers interested in a better understanding of political reform processes

Agritourism in Africa Brighton Nyagadza, Farai Chigora, Azizul Hassan, 2024-07-19 This insightful timely and multi faceted book offers significant insight into the role and complex dynamics of agritourism in Africa Logically structured data led and richly illustrated throughout chapters provide theoretical policy and practical implications on the successes and challenges of achieving sustainable agritourism destinations with an emphasis on technology that not only grows African economies but offers work opportunities increased social empowerment and diversity Based on empirical research the volume covers a wide range of topics relating to agritourism in Africa elucidated through inclusion of case studies and examples from around the continent including Ghana Angola and Nigeria Topics covered include discussion of the features required for a successful agritourism business the impact of social media and digital marketing on new agritourism destinations This volume will be of pivotal interest to students researchers and scholars of Tourism African Studies and Development Studies Inflation Mark Blyth,Nicolò Fraccaroli,2025-05-06 One of the Financial Times s Best Summer Books of 2025 An essential dose of clear thinking on one of the most contentious issues in economic policy Adam Tooze A fresh revealing and myth busting guide to the ins and outs of inflation from two leading political economists Inflation is back and its impact can be felt everywhere from the grocery store to the mortgage market to the results of elections around the world What s more tariffs and trade wars threaten to accelerate inflation again Yet the conventional wisdom about inflation is stuck in the past Since the 1970s there has only really been one playbook for fighting inflation raise interest rates thereby creating unemployment and a recession which will lower prices But this simple story hides a multitude of beliefs about why prices go up and how policymakers can wrestle them back down beliefs that are often wrong damaging and have little empirical basis Leading political economists Mark Blyth and Nicol Fraccaroli reveal why inflation really happens challenge how we think about it and argue for fresh approaches to combat it With accessible and engaging commentary and a good dose of humor Blyth and Fraccaroli bring the complexities of economic policy and inflation indices down to earth Policymakers around the world may have pulled off a so called soft landing but Inflation warns they must update their thinking Now tariffs climate shocks demographic change geopolitical tensions and politicians promising to upend the global order are all combining to create a more inflationary future making a new paradigm for understanding inflation urgently necessary Astute timely and engaging Inflation is a must read for anyone seeking to understand the forces shaping our economy and politics Migration in Southern Africa Pragna Rugunanan,Nomkhosi Xulu-Gama,2022-05-30 This open access Regional Reader proposes new ways of theorizing migration in Southern Africa by arguing that traditional western forms of theorizing do not adequately fit the South South migration context It explores the existing definitions of a migrant with a view to conceptualise a definition which will speak to the complexities envisioning a more inclusive Southern African region The book investigates the various levels of migration moving from the local rural to urban and urban to rural to cross border migration middle class versus working class migrant household livelihoods livelihoods procurement versus wage earning social capital networks and how they make meaning of their circumstances in a foreign space It also acknowledges the intertwined issues of gender and class as important in analyzing migration processes and the chapters feature both in varying dimensions As such the book provides a great resource for students academics and policy makers The Decolonisation of Zimbabwe Kate Law,2020-05-21 Rhodesia s illegal Unilateral Declaration of Independence UDI in 1965 is an act that not only shaped regional politics but also had a profound effect on Britain s attempt to retreat from its empire This edited collection brings together leading voices in the field whose contributions on the role of finance big business and the regional and international actors involved in the country's negotiated independence update long held historiographical wisdoms signalling a revival in economic and diplomatic explanations for the country's decolonisation. In particular they shed fresh light on the roles played in the decolonisation of Zimbabwe by economic private business and political liberation movements. Western and Southern African governments actors that until now have been studied with very limited access to primary sources. As scholarship on Zimbabwe is currently dominated by studies that seek to understand the crisis in which the country has recently found itself this collection acts as a clarion call that reinforces the importance of studies of earlier historical processes. In doing so the book provides a more nuanced understanding of the continuities and discontinuities between Zimbabwe's colonial and postcolonial history and examines the roles played by external governments and individuals in the decolonisation of Zimbabwe. This book was originally published as a special issue of The Journal of Imperial and Commonwealth History Constitutionalism and the Economy in Africa Charles M. Fombad, Nico Steytler, 2022-11-14. Despite expectations that the celebrated second wave of constitutional democracy in the 1990s would facilitate economic development Africa remains the continent with the highest level of poverty in the world. The fight against poverty hinges on a vibrant economy that creates jobs and income by generating enough revenue to enable the state to take pro development measures. However instead of the economic benefits that were supposed to accrue from the constitutional reforms of the last three decades including entrenching a market economy African economies remain weak a situation that has been aggravated by the COVID 19 pandemic. By focusing on the relationship between constitutionalism and economic growth in Africa this volume addresses five questions: 1 In the constitutional reforms of the 1990s and thereafter did constitutions also reflect the shift towards a market economy and if so in what manner? 2 Given that agriculture and extractive industries are the main sources of state revenue in many African economies how are matters of land and other natural resources dealt with constitutionally? 3 Where the market economy is captured in a constitution what is the state's relationship to that economy interventionist or laissez faire or somewhere in between? Have constitutions also established a social state that provides its citizens with the basic elements of a dignified life? 4 In the process of constitution making and implementation concerning the economy what impact has globalization had on constitutionalism and economic growth in Africa? 5 Finally how has the relationship between constitutionalism and economic growth played out in practice? Is there a symbiotic relationship? Has constitutionalism led or may do so to greater economic prosperity? Constitutionalism and the Economy in Africa offers a range of comprehensive arguments and case studies that will be of interest and use to academics post graduate students judges lawyers economists and policy makers involved in the economic role of the State the impact of globalization and the constitutional foundations for land and natural resources exploitation. Balancing Rocks United Nations Development Programme. Office of the Resident Representative (Zimbabwe), 1996. Balancing Rocks tackles the environment issues affecting Zimbabwe their consequences and solutions. The book is the first empirical attempt to assess Zimbabwe's environmental linkages to development with the intention of reviewing policy for the future. It is a useful tool for all those interested in a discussion that goes beyond narrow academic or political agendas and who understand that environment and development are fragile balancing rocks.
