Basics Sallie Han, Cecília Tomori, 2025-02-24 Anthropology of Reproduction The Basics is a clear and accessible guide to topics in reproduction from the perspective of anthropology emphasizing the central importance of reproduction in human sociocultural and biological experience It examines why reproduction matters so much to human beings and what anthropology offers to better understand their decisions about having or not having children and their experiences with periods infertility contraception abortion pregnancy pregnancy loss birth and care for children The book shows that all of reproduction is shaped by our evolution prehistory and history as well as the cultural social political and economic contexts and conditions that impact our lives It tells the story of how these conditions enable support constrain or coerce reproduction and how people around the world survive or thrive within comply with or resist against these forces to create their reproductive futures Its primary goals are to promote an understanding of human reproduction as sociocultural and biological experience awareness of and attention to the sociocultural historical political and economic contexts and conditions influence the ideas and practices of human reproduction particularly how social inequities shape reproduction and in turn how we can move towards more equal and just reproductive futures to introduce and reinforce an understanding of anthropology as a discipline taking a holistic approach to human experiences This student friendly text provides an overview of the fundamental principles of reproduction and is an invaluable guide for anyone wanting to learn more about this fascinating subject It is an essential read for students approaching the subject for the first time as well as researchers coming to the topic from another discipline in the sciences and humanities

Jesus' Transfiguration and the Believers' Transformation Simon S. Lee, 2009 Revision of the author's thesis Th D Harvard University 2008

The Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Yacob Godebo, 2025-07-03 The Scriptures teach the church that in biblical times the coming of the Holy Spirit equally entailed objective gift of divine reality and subjective experience of his presence gifts and works There was objective pouring out and imparting of the Holy Spirit from the divine side and subjective experiential demonstration from the receivers side which resulted from the gifts endowed and power imparted along with the Holy Spirit Having given them either verbally uttered or visibly performed gifts the Holy Spirit then moved believers towards practical demonstration through subjective experience Believers subjective experience took place only as a result of the objective gift of the Holy Spirit and the resulting endowment and empowerment Thus in the objective content of his manifestation the Holy Spirit is the objective gift of God to indwell his people In the subjective content of his manifestation the Holy Spirit endows people with audibly uttered or visibly performed gifts The subjective experience of the Holy Spirit's presence therefore is an original theological input from God just like the objective impartation of the Holy Spirit Practitioners were just objects of divine purpose and their subjective experience was divine provided and divine initiated genuine experience beyond their consciousness and calculation Reception of the Holy Spirit therefore means equally an experience of his presence gifts power and works in the church and in with and through believers from Hosanna to Maranatha
