Architecture Studio Job New York:

Conversions Emma O'Kelly, Corinna Dean, 2007 Addresses the growing trend in converting existing structures into a series of ingenious living spaces as it looks at varied projects from around the world in rural urban and civic buildings as well as lofts industrial spaces and other unique buildings examining such topics as what elements of the structure are left intact what are demolished how each building was converted into a dwelling budgets materials and impact on the surrounding environment

Paul Rudolph Christopher Domin, Joseph King, 2007-10-23 Paul Rudolph one of the twentieth century's most iconoclastic architects is best known and most maligned for his large brutalist buildings like Yale's Art and Architecture Building So it will surprise many to learn that early in his career he developed a series of houses that represent the unrivaled possibilities of a modest American modernism With their distinctive natural landscapes local architectural precedents and exploitation of innovative construction materials the Florida houses some eighty projects built between 1946 and 1961 brought modern architectural form into a gracious subtropical world of natural abundance developed to a high pitch of stylistic refinement Paul Rudolph The Florida Houses reveals all of Rudolph's early residential work With Rudolph's personal essays and renderings duotone photographs by Ezra Stoller and Joseph Molitor and insightful text by Joseph King and Christopher Domin this compelling new book conveys the lightness timelessness strength materiality and transcendence of Rudolph's work

Present Marietta de Vries, 2010 Represent Royal Tichelaar Makkum describes the last fifteen years of the long history of this Frisian earthenware factory and the Netherlands' oldest company Under the impassioned leadership of director Jan Tichelaar Royal Tichelaar Makkum is undergoing a number of decisive changes By combining century-old craftsmanship with innovative projects by designers and architects he has succeeded in broadening the company's activities to include contemporary products in the fields of architecture and design The production of traditional earthenware one of Holland's most famous national products will continue alongside these new advancements In this way new products within both disciplines are being developed while traditional craftsmanship undergoes unique innovations Represent Royal Tichelaar Makkum outlines the context which gave rise to these developments and gives a picture of the many inspiring products it has generated
