Architecture And Design Of Man And Woman:

The Architecture and Design of Man and Woman Alexander Tsiaras, Barry Werth, 2004 More than five hundred computer images capture the anatomy of the human body revealing the construction and workings of each system of the body and rebuilding the body from the molecular level up Women in Architecture Ursula Schwitalla, 2021-01-01 Warum erhalten Architektinnen nicht die Anerkennung die ihr Werk verdient Women in Architecture ist ein Manifest f r die gro artigen Leistungen von Frauen in der Architektur 36 international t tige Architektinnen kommen mit einem eigenen Projekt zu Wort Dieses vielf ltige Panorama wird erg nzt von Essays zu Pionierinnen in der Architektur und Analysen die der strukturellen Diskriminierung von Architektinnen auf den Grund gehen Mit Mona Bayr Odile Decq Elke Delugan Meissl Julie Eizenberg Manuelle Gautrand Annette Gigon Silvia Gm r Cristina Guedes Melkan G rsel Itsuko Hasegawa Anna Heringer Fabienne Hoelzel Helle Juul Karla Kowalski Anupama Kundoo Anne Lacaton Regine Leibinger Lu Wenyu Dorte Mandrup Rozana Montiel Kathrin Moore Farshid Moussavi Carme Pin s Nili Portugali Paula Santos Kazuyo Sejima Annabelle Selldorf Pavitra Sriprakash Siv Helene Stangeland Brigitte Sunder Plassmann Lene Tranberg Billie Tsien Elisa Valero Natalie de Vries Andrea Wandel und Helena Weber The Routledge Companion for Architecture Design and Practice Mitra Kanaani, Dak Kopec, 2015-11-06 The Routledge Companion for Architecture Design and Practice provides an overview of established and emerging trends in architecture practice Contributions of the latest research from international experts examine external forces applied to the practice and discipline of architecture Each chapter contains up to date and relevant information about select aspects of architecture and the changes this information will have on the future of the profession The Companion contains thirty five chapters divided into seven parts Theoretical Stances Technology Sustainability Behaviorism Urbanism Professional Practice and Society Topics include Evidence Based Design Performativity Designing for Net Zero Energy The Substance of Light in Design Social Equity and Ethics for Sustainable Architecture Universal Design Design Psychology Architecture Branding and the Politics of Identity The Role of BIM in Green Architecture Public Health and the Design Process Affordable Housing Disaster Preparation and Mitigation Diversity and many more Each chapter follows the running theme of examining external forces applied to the practice and discipline of architecture in order to uncover the evolving theoretical tenets of what constitutes today s architectural profession and the tools that will be required of the future architect This book considers architecture s interdisciplinary nature and addresses its current and evolving perspectives related to social economic environmental technological and globalization trends These challenges are central to the future direction of architecture and as such this Companion will serve as an invaluable reference for undergraduate and postgraduate students existing practitioners and future architects Irigaray for Architects Peg Rawes, 2007-10-24 Written specifically for architects this short book introduces practitioners and students to Irigaray s work enabling them to understand the value of historically informed cross and inter disciplinary modes of architectural practice Women,

Practice, Architecture Naomi Stead, 2016-01-08 The image of the architect is undeniably gendered While the male architect might be celebrated as the ideal man in Hollywood romantic comedies blessed with practicality and creativity in equal measure to impeccable taste and an enviable lifestyle the image of the woman architect is not so clear cut While women have been practicing and excelling in architecture for more than a hundred years their professional identity as constructed in the media is complex and sometimes contradictory This book explores the working lives and aspirations of women in architectural practice but more than this it explores how popular media newspapers magazines and websites serve to define and describe who a woman architect should be what she should look like and how she should behave Looking further into the way that professional characteristics are reinforced through awards like the Pritzker Prize the book demonstrates how idealised characteristics such as sensitivity and vision are seen to be neither entirely masculine nor feminine but instead a complex hybrid owing much to historic concepts of genius Drawing on history sociology media analysis and feminist theories of architectural practice the book will be of interest to all of those who seek to better understand the image and identity of the architect This book was published as a double special issue of Architectural Theory Review

Reconstructing Architecture Thomas A. Dutton, Lian Hurst Mann, 1996 Reconstructing Architecture was first published in 1996 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions To create architecture is an inherently political act yet its nature as a social practice is often obscured beneath layers of wealth and privilege The contributors to this volume question architecture's complicity with the status quo moving beyond critique to outline the part architects are playing in building radical social movements and challenging dominant forms of power The making of architecture is instrumental in the construction of our identities our differences the world around us much of what we know of institutions the distribution of power social relations and cultural values is mediated by the built environment Historically architecture has constructed the environments that house the dominant culture Yet as the essays in Reconstructing Architecture demonstrate there exists a strong tradition of critical practice in the field one that attempts to alter existing social power relations Engaging the gap between modernism and postmodernism each chapter addresses an oppositional discourse that has developed within the field and then reconstructs it in terms of a new social project feminism social theory environmentalism cultural studies race and ethnic studies and critical theory The activists and scholars writing here provide a clarion call to architects and other producers of culture challenging them to renegotiate their political allegiances and to help reconstruct a viable democratic life in the face of inexorable forces driving economic growth destroying global ecology homogenizing culture and privatizing the public realm Reconstructing Architecture reformulates the role of architecture in society as well as its capacity to further a progressive social transformation Contributors Sherry Ahrentzen U of Wisconsin Milwaukee Bradford C Grant California Polytechnic State U San Luis Obispo Richard Ingersoll Rice U Margaret Soltan George Washington U Anthony Ward U of

Auckland New Zealand Thomas A Dutton is an architect and professor of architecture at Miami University Ohio He is editor of Voices in Architectural Education 1991 and is associate editor of the Journal of Architectural Education Lian Hurst Mann is an architect and editor of Architecture California A founding member of the Labor Community Strategy Center in Los Angeles she is editor of its bilingual quarterly Ahora Now and a coauthor of Reconstructing Los Angeles from the Bottom Up 1993

Women and the Making of the Modern House Alice T. Friedman, 2006-01-01 Investigates how women patrons of architecture were essential catalysts for innovation in domestic architectural design This book explores the challenges that unconventional attitudes and ways of life presented to architectural thinking and to the architects themselves

Work-Life Balance in Architecture Igea Troiani, 2024-03-04 This book seeks to improve the work lives of architects of diverse demographics who do not fit or want to replicate the traditional 24/7 white male architect lifestyle Aimed at a workforce whose life and career expectations have changed drastically in recent years it helps readers of different generations to make informed choices about their careers enabling students educators and professionals to prioritise wellbeing and offer their design and practice voice to enhance a built environment for all Work Life Balance in Architecture examines what it means to play the game of architecture to choose to study and pursue a career in architecture rather than another profession The book shows the economic social and professional structures within which architectural education and practice operate and reveals the impact of a corporate neoliberal big business mentality on wellbeing After setting out the context exacerbating work life imbalance the book discusses the paths an architect may take whether this leads to a career in practice or not in architecture at all and how alternative gameplay moves can advantage or disadvantage those of different gender class ethnicity race or age at different career stages It concludes by examining how the places in which an architect works the time available to work and critiques of perpetual neoliberal economic growth can enhance the lives of all architects today

Gender Studies in Architecture Dörte Kuhlmann, 2014-04-11 Analyzing a range of ideas from biological evolutionary and anthropological theories to a variety of feminist psychoanalytic poststructuralist and constructivist discourses this book provides a comprehensive introduction to the problematics of gender and power in architectural and urban design Topics range from conceptions of postulated matriarchal architecture in Old Europe to contemporary technologies of control from the mechanisms of gaze to architectural performatives from the under representation of women in the planning profession to the integration of gender issues to the curriculum The particular strengths of the book lie in its inclusiveness and critical analysis It is not a partisan defence of feminism or any other theory but a critical introduction to the issues relating to gender Moreover the conclusions reach beyond a narrow gender studies perspective to social and ethical considerations that are unavoidable in any responsible architectural or urbanistic practice With its broad range and balanced analysis of different theories the book is suitable as an overview of gender studies in architecture and useful for any designer who is concerned with the social effects of the built environment
