National Archives and Records Administration, 1996 The Gulf Migrant Archives in Kerala Mohamed Shafeeq Karinkurayil, 2024-03-20 The Indian state of Kerala is one of the largest blocs of migrants in the oil economies of the Arab Gulf Looking closely at the cultural archives produced by and on the Gulf migrants in Malayalam the predominant language of Kerala this book takes stock of circular migration beyond its economics It combines formal and thematic analyses of photographs films and literature with anthropological and historical details to offer a nuanced understanding of the construction of the Gulf and its translation to the cultural imaginary of Kerala It explores the dissonance between the private and public discourses on the Gulf among migrants and non migrants and demonstrates the role of this disjuncture in the continued fascination for Gulf migrant lives An enquiry into the various dimensions of the Gulf in Kerala as an acknowledged means of living as a rumour an object of gossip a public secret or even a private thrill this book debunks the idea of language as a common entity and studies the tentative borders built within Finally it explores the resources possibilities and perils of affiliative communities constructed along and across those borders Administrative Notes, 1985 The Center Christina K. Schaefer, 1996 This book's aim is simple to identify resources in the Washington DC area that will aid family historians in tracing their ancestors In meeting that goal it shows the researcher precisely what genealogical resources are available in the nation's capital and where they can be found More than a tool this book is a resource in itself The Record United States.
