Magazine ,2005-06 East Link Light Rail Transit Project, Seattle ,2011 Moody's Manual of Investments, American and Foreign ,1941 Travel & Leisure ,2006-05 Business Improvement Districts and the Contradictions of Placemaking Susanna F. Schaller,2019-07-15 The livable city the creative city and more recently the pop up city have become pervasive monikers that identify a new type of urbanism that has sprung up globally produced and managed by the business improvement district and known colloquially by its acronym BID With this case study Susanna F Schaller draws on more than fifteen years of research to present a direct focused engagement with both the planning history that has shaped Washington D C s segregated landscape and the intricacies of everyday life politics and planning practice as they relate to BIDs Schaller offers a critical unpacking of the BID ethos which draws on the language of economic liberalism individual choice civic engagement localism and grassroots development to portray itself as color blind democratic and equitable Schaller reveals the contradictions embedded in the BID model For the last thirty years BID advocates have engaged in effective and persuasive storytelling as a result many policy makers and planners perpetuate the BID narrative without examining the institution and the inequities it has wrought as BID urbanism has oiled the urban gentrification machine Schaller sheds light on these oversights thus fostering a critical discussion of BIDs and their collective influence on future urban landscapes
