This third factor is the focus of the five papers in this volume; they investigate the structure of Asian varieties of English by exploring the relationship between the typological profile of substrate languages in the specific linguistic ecology and the grammatical features of the emerging contact variety of English. The contributions to this volume were originally published in English World Wide 30.2 (2009). Social Justice in Action Neal A. Lester, 2024-11-08 Addressing both veterans of justice work and novices seeking points of entry, the essays in this volume showcase practical approaches to diversity, equity, and inclusion; ways to build community, earn trust, tell unheard stories, and develop solutions to problems. Emphasizing values such as empathy, self-reflection, and integrity, the volume is rooted in humanities work but also features contributions from fields as diverse as the performing arts, architecture, and evolutionary biology, and represents settings beyond the college campus such as schools, libraries, museums, and prisons. While bringing insights from higher education, it critiques the system as well, exploring the ways that institutions reinforce power structures and exclude marginalized voices. Interspersed with the essays, brief reflections by activists and artists offer testimony and inspiration. College Credit for Writing in High School Kristine Hansen, Christine Farris, 2010 Edited by Kristine Hansen and Christine R.
