Who Was Who on TV Norman Chance,2010-12-23 The information herein was accumulated of fifty some odd years The collection process started when TV first came out and continued until today The books are in alphabetical order and cover shows from the 1940s to 2010 The author has added a brief explanation of each show and then listed all the characters who played the roles and for the most part the year or years the actor or actress played that role Also included are most of the people who created the shows the producers directors and the writers of the shows These books are a great source of trivia information and for most of the older folk will bring back some very fond memories I know a lot of times we think back and say Who was the guy that played such and such a role Enjoy Business Week ,2005

Focus On: 100 Most Popular Television Series by Warner Bros. Television Wikipedia contributors, The New Gay for Pay Julia Himberg,2018-01-13 Television conveys powerful messages about sexual identities and popular shows such as Will how those practitioners operate within media conglomerates and perhaps most important how they contribute to commonsense ideas about sexuality Reality TV Jon Kraszewski,2017-02-24 From early first wave programs such as Candid Camera An American Family and The Real World to the shows on our television screens and portable devices today reality television consistently takes us to cities such as New York Los Angeles and Boston to imagine the place of urbanity in American culture and society Jon Kraszewski offers the first extended account of this phenomenon as he makes the politics of urban space the center of his history and theory of reality television Kraszewski situates reality television in a larger economic transformation that started in the 1980s when America went from an industrial economy when cities were home to all classes to its post industrial economy as cities became key points in a web of global financing expelling all economic classes except the elite and the poor Reality television in the industrial era reworked social relationships based on class race and gender for liberatory purposes which resulted in an egalitarian ethos in the genre However reality television of the post industrial era attempts to convince viewers that cities still serve their interests even though most viewers find city life today economically untenable Each chapter uses a key theoretical concept from spatial theory such as power geometries diasporic nostalgia orientalism the imagination of social expulsions and the relationship between the country and the city to illuminate the way reality television engages this larger transformation of urban space in America
