FIERY DAWN
ACROSS THE BLUE SKY
BLACK SMOKING HALO
FOR EACH SPECIES CRY

A LOT OF US HELPING TOO MANY STAND STILL WILL ALL DIE TOGETHER
EACH RAINFOREST WE KILL

THINK WHAT WE'RE DOING
LOOK AT THE GREEN
BURNED OUT AND CUT DOWN
THE BLACKEST YOU'VE SEEN

REACTIONS IMPORTANT
IT'S TIME TO ACT NOW
OUR FUTURE IS WITH US
RAIN FOREST IS HOW

Whiteness, Feminism and the Absurd in Contemporary British and US Poetry Jenna Clake, 2025-02-28 In an era of political and social turmoil on both sides of the Atlantic where issues of gender race and class are linked with concerns of how to survive in a capitalist society a new aesthetic of Absurdist poetry has emerged This aesthetic has a troubled relationship to race pervaded by issues of representation in avant garde poetry and notions of who poetry writers and readers are Focusing on British and US poets including Rachael Allen Emily Berry Crispin Best Caroline Bird Franny Choi Jennifer L Knox Morgan Parker and Jane Yeh Jenna Clake investigates how poets use the Absurd to destabilise ideas about race gender and class and imagine social change Bringing together Whiteness studies socio political theory and close readings of poems Clake examines how the Absurd has developed how its poets understand privilege and offer prospects of hope and change and how the Absurd might move away from nihilism Till One Day the Sun Shall Shine More Brightly

Derek Pollard, 2020-01-29 Since the publication of From the Abandoned Cities in 1983 Donald Revell has been among the more consistent influencers in American poetry and poetics Yet his work has achieved the status it has his honors include fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Guggenheim Foundation and awards from the PEN Center USA and American Poetry Review in a manner that has often tended to belie its abiding significance This collection of essays reviews and interviews is designed to ignite a more wide ranging critical appraisal of Revell's writing from his fourteen collections of poems to his acclaimed translations of French symbolist and modernist poets to his artfully constructed literary criticism Contributors such as Marjorie Perloff Stephanie Burt Dan Beachy Quick and Bruce Bond examine key elements in and across Revell's work from his visionary postmodernism Our words can never say the mystery of our meanings but there they are spoken and meaning worlds to us to his poetics of radical attention And so a poem has nothing to do with picking and choosing with the mot juste and reflection in tranquility It is a plain record of one's entire presence in order to enlarge our understanding of how and why that work has come to occupy the place that it has in contemporary American letters

Joanstown and Other Poems Michael Gilkes, 2002 Between the long title poem and the other poems in the collection Michael Gilkes sets up a dialogue about the nature of memory and the meaning of experience across time The Routledge Companion to Ecopoetics Julia Fiedorczuk, Mary Newell, Bernard Quetchenbach, Orchid Tierney, 2023-09-29 The Routledge Companion to Ecopoetics offers comprehensive coverage of the vital and growing movement of ecopoetics This volume begins with a general introduction to the field followed by six sections Perspectives broad overviews engaging fields such as biosemiosis kinship praxis and philosophical approaches Experiments formal innovations developed by poets in response to planetary crises Earth and Water explorations of poetic entanglement with planetary chemical and biological systems Waste Toxicity Precarity poetics addressing the effects of pollution and climate change Environmental Justice and Activism examinations of poetry as an engine of political and cultural change Region and Place an international array of traditional and contemporary geographically focused responses to ecosystems and environmental conditions and Subjectivities Affects Sexualities investigations of gender ethnicity and race as they intersect with ecological concerns Each section includes an overview and summary addressing the specific essays in the section These previously unpublished essays represent a wide variety of nationalities backgrounds perspectives and critical approaches exploring the interdisciplinary field of ecopoetics Contributions from leading scholars working across the globe make The Routledge Companion to Ecopoetics a landmark textbook and reference for a variety of researchers and students

Words of Crisis, Crisis of Words María Losada Friend, Pilar Ron Vaz, Auxiliadora Pérez Vides, 2016-04-26 This volume offers a collection of papers dealing with how adversities have been tackled and expressed artistically from various perspectives in Ireland Taken together the many approaches to critical times provided here prove how surrounded by outbursts of pessimism financial hecatombs and individual and collective discouragement the academic community can find meaning in hard intellectual work and in serious updated research The chapters here are authored by scholars specialised in Irish Studies and provide reflections and discussions on the broad topic of crisis and Ireland its description and representation and the different ways in which difficulties have been discussed imagined or even solved

Skepticism and Impersonality in Modern Poetry V. Joshua Adams, 2025-06-12 Modern literature is often described in terms of its impersonality What is the significance of this fact In Skepticism and Impersonality V Joshua Adams follows the history of impersonality in modern poetry from Mallarm and Eliot through to the present engaging with work by major poets and critics but also contemporary philosophers Rather than seeing impersonality exclusively as a literary historical phenomenon Adams argues that we should understand it as an attempt to address skeptical problems arising from the limitations of first person experience Defending impersonality as a response to skeptical problems including doubts about the publicity of our experiences our knowledge of other minds the capacity of our language to describe the world the relationship between mind and body and the fictionality and continuity of our sense of self Adams analyzes what he calls experiments in impersonality as means of working through skeptical doubt The writers discussed transform this doubt into art whilst also ironizing it as corrosive and self defeating Ultimately this leads Adams to reinterpret literary impersonality as a therapeutic philosophical project Skepticism and Impersonality promises a new theoretical justification for our practical interest in literary texts to renovate our conception of how those texts might do philosophical work and to expand our sense of what a philosophical poem can be

Reflections on Imagination Mark Harris,Nigel Rapport,2016-03-03 In this innovative volume anthropologists turn their attention to a topic that has rarely figured as a focus of concerted investigation and yet which can be described as an intrinsic aspect of all human knowing and part of all processes by which human beings process information about themselves their identities their environments and their relations the imagination How do anthropologists use imagination in coming to know their research subjects How might they and how should they use their imagination And how do research subjects themselves understand describe justify and limit their use of the imagination Presenting a range of case studies from a variety of locations including the UK US Africa East Asia and South America this collection offers a comparative exploration of how imagination has been conceptualized and understood in a range of analytical traditions with regard to issues of both methodology and ethnomethodology With emphasis not on abstraction but on imagination as activity technique and subject situated in the middle of lives Reflections on Imagination sheds new light on imagination as a universal capacity and practice something to which human beings attend whenever they make sense of their environments and situate their life projects in these environments the means by which worlds come to be Finding Ourselves Lost Robert C. Dykstra,2018-06-13 This book wrestles with quandaries of pastoral ministry in what psychotherapist Mary Pipher calls the age of overwhelm Drawing especially from the wisdom of Jesus own teaching and healing ministries as portrayed in the Gospel of Luke it offers an intimate narrative introduction to pastoral theology for guiding bewildering tasks of pastoral care and counseling These essays encourage seminarians and ministers to embrace their role as agents of healing by exploring their own debilitating shame and daring to speak what in childhood could not be spoken by revealing their discoveries to a trusted confidant so as to feel less loathsome or lonely by attending to even minute individual differences in self and others that fuel social isolation and by believing in those persons who first believed in them

The Affinity of the Eye Ignacio López-Calvo,2013-06-06 In The Affinity of the Eye Writing Nikkei in Peru Ignacio L pez Calvo rises above the political emergence of the Fujimori phenomenon and uses politics and literature to provide one of the first comprehensive looks at how the Japanese assimilated and inserted themselves into Peruvian culture Through contemporary writers testimonies essays fiction and poetry L pez Calvo constructs an account of the cultural formation of Japanese migrant communities With deftly sensitive interviews and comments he portrays the difficulties of being a Japanese Peruvian Despite a few notable examples Asian Peruvians have been excluded from a sense of belonging or national identity in Peru which provides L pez Calvo with the opportunity to record what the community says about their own cultural production In so doing L pez Calvo challenges fixed notions of Japanese Peruvian identity The Affinity of the Eye scrutinizes authors such as Jos Watanabe Fernando Iwasaki Augusto Higa Doris Moromisato and Carlos Yushimito discussing their literature and their connections to the past present and future Whether these authors push against or accept what it means to be Japanese Peruvians they enrich the images and feelings of that experience Through a close reading of literary and cultural productions L pez Calvo s analysis challenges and reframes the parameters of being Nikkei in Peru Covering both Japanese issues in Peru and Peruvian issues in Japan the book is more than a compendium of stories characters and titles It proves the fluid enriching and ongoing relationship that exists between Peru and Japan Spiritcarvers Antonella Sarti,2022-06-08 In a land caught between the sea and cloud where the natural landscape still refuses civilization there are those the composers of words tellers of tales that help shape the minds of the people that live on its shores They are spiritcarvers New Zealand writing today is engaging in an intent struggle to subvert multiple shapes into voices These interviews as a record of biographical orature are shaped into presenting the figure of the storyteller through memory and language explorations of how we imagine and create ourselves with and into words Here we encounter the dichotomy of fiction and non fiction myth and consensual reality imagination and truth do we live within our own selected fictions Identity is shaped by the authors sense of displacement as well as of belonging meeting otherness with dispossession discovering connection through isolation Among the focal points of the interviews are the role of women s writing Maori writing interrelations among different cultures and the influence of literary and oral tradition within New Zealand

Anthropocene Poetry Yvonne Reddick,2023-11-03 Anthropocene Poetry Place Environment and Planet argues that the idea of the Anthropocene is inspiring new possibilities for poetry It can also change the way we read and interpret poems If environmental poetry was once viewed as linked to place this book shows how poets are now grappling with environmental issues from the local to the planetary climate change and the extinction crisis nuclear weapons and waste plastic pollution and the petroleum industry This book intervenes in debates about culture and science traditional poetic form and experimental ecopoetics to show how poets are collaborating with environmental scientists and joining environmental activist movements to respond to this time of crisis From the canonical work of Ted Hughes and Seamus Heaney to award winning poets Alice Oswald Pascale Petit Kei Miller and Karen McCarthy Woolf this book explores major figures from the past alongside acclaimed contemporary voices It reveals Seamus Heaney s support for conservation causes and Ted Hughes s astonishingly forward thinking research on climate change it discusses how Pascale Petit has given poetry to Extinction Rebellion and how Karen McCarthy Woolf set sail with scientists to write about plastic pollution This book deploys research on five poetry archives in the UK USA and Ireland and the author's insider insights into the commissioning processes and collaborative methods that shaped important contemporary poetry publications Anthropocene Poetry finds that environmental poetry is flourishing in the face of ecological devastation Such poetry speaks of the anxieties and dilemmas of our age and searches for paths towards resilience and resistance

Eco-critical Literature Ogaga Okuyade, 2013 Eco Critical Literature Regreening African Landscapes critically examines the representations constructions and imaginings of the relationship between the human and non human worlds in contemporary African literature and culture It offers innovative incisive and critical perspectives on the importance of sustaining a symbiotic relationship between humans and their environment The book thus carries African scholarship beyond the mere analysis of themes and style to ethical and activist roles of literature having an impact on readers and the public It is a scholarship geared towards rectifying ecological imbalance that is prevalent in many parts of the continent that forms the setting context and thematic discourse of the works or authors studied in this book Besides sensitizing the African readership to the need for the restoration of harmony between man and the environment this book equally aims to further familiarize scholars and students working on African literature and culture with the theoretical concerns of eco criticism
