Bombardier Abroad David P. Thomas, 2018-10-10T00:00:00Z In Bombardier Abroad Thomas examines several cases of the Canadian aerospace giant's work in the high speed rail sector in South Africa China Tibet and Israel Palestine and argues that these projects are deepening existing social and political tensions By participating in these infrastructure projects Thomas argues Bombardier is both inserting itself into highly contested social and political climates and profiting from actions that further exacerbate existing conditions of dispossession and inequality Thomas also examines the various ways in which the Canadian state supports the work of Bombardier in these countries Centred around a theoretical framework that combines concepts of dispossession political economy and important interventions from the field of settler colonial studies

Bombardier Abroad is a critical look at the problematic practices of a Canadian corporation and the ways in which the Canadian state is culpable Industrial Internet of Things Sabina Jeschke, Christian Brecher, Houbing Song, Danda B. Rawat, 2016-10-12 This book develops the core system science needed to enable the development of a complex industrial internet of things manufacturing cyber physical systems IIoT M CPS Gathering contributions from leading experts in the field with years of experience in advancing manufacturing it fosters a research community committed to advancing research and education in IIoT M CPS and to translating applicable science and technology into engineering practice Presenting the current state of IIoT and the concept of cybermanufacturing this book is at the nexus of research advances from the engineering and computer and information science domains Readers will acquire the core system science needed to transform to cybermanufacturing that spans the full spectrum from ideation to physical realization Annual Report ... South Africa. Department of Higher Education and Training, 2016 Leaving School and Starting Work Ethel Venables, 2016-06-06 Leaving School and Starting Work presents the institutional help that is available to young people when they leave school This book examines the move of the new generation away from indoctrination in the schools towards freedom of expression and the involvement of the person in his own decisions Organized into five chapters this book starts with an overview of the psychoanalytic theory which suggests that the need to assess capacity and knowledge is not the only motive It then discusses the reality that society is a much more open one and the class structure is much less rigid Other chapters examine the misleading concept that opportunities for personal advancement are available to anyone with the necessary ability and drive which is a disservice to several very young people This book discusses as well the rational and conscious process of occupational choice The final chapter deals with the general attitudes to work and study This book is a valuable resource for young people faced with the challenges of leaving school and starting work Jay Pather, Performance, and Spatial Politics in South Africa Ketu H. Katrak, 2021-03-02 Jay Pather Performance and Spatial Politics in South Africa offers the first full length monograph on the award winning choreographer theater director curator and creative artist in contemporary global performance Working within the contexts of African studies dance theater and performance Ketu H Katrak explores the extent of Pather s productive career but also places him and his work in the South African and global arts scene where he is considered a visionary Pather a South African of Indian heritage is known as a master of space site and location Katrak examines how Pather s performance practices place him in the center of global trends that are interdisciplinary multidisciplinary collaborative and multimedia and that cross borders between dance theater visual art and technology Jay Pather Performance and Spatial Politics in South Africa offers a vision of an artist who is strategically aware of the spatiality of human life who understands the human body as the nation s collective history and who is a symbol of hope and resilience after the trauma of violent segregation Global Human Resource Development Thomas Garavan, Alma McCarthy, Michael Morley, 2016-02-05 Drawing on contributions from leading academics in the field this volume within the Routledge Series in Human Resource Development specifically focuses on Global Human Resource Development HRD Specifically the volume provides an overview of 17 regions 85 countries and includes one emerging market grouping CIVETS This book examines the role of the state in HRD the relationship between HRD and the level of economic development in the country or region the influence of foreign direct investment within the country or region and firm level HRD practices within countries or regions Global Human Resource Development analyzes HRD from institutional and cross cultural perspectives making it possible for the first time to analyze trends across countries and regions and to draw conclusions about the value of institutional and cross cultural perspectives in the HRD context There is currently no book on the market that conceptualizes the discipline of global HRD in this way making this a definitive book on HRD across the globe of particular interest to researchers and reflective practitioners
