Criminals and Certain Other Aliens United States. Congress. House. Committee on Immigration and Naturalization,1937

The New Edition of the Consolidated Laws of British Honduras, 1924 British Honduras,1924 Fair
Immigration Proceedings in Europe Pieter Boeles,2023-08-14 Fair Immigration Proceedings in Europe deals with international minimum standards for effective and fair immigration proceedings which apply for the region of the European Union It is the first study to analyze systematically the impact of a wide range of relevant treaties under the UN the Council of Europe and the European Union on the quality of national immigration proceedings As a result a coherent picture has come to the surface which despite several lacunae gives a surprising view of the acquis of binding obligations on EU Member States in this field Special attention is given to the greater conventions like the Refugee Convention of Geneva the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights the European Convention on Human Rights and the EC Treaty Because of its systematic structure the book is readily accessible for quick consultation It constitutes an important tool for litigation practice and legislation for civil servants judges attorneys and researchers It will also be of interest to academics because of its analysis of the interaction between minimum norms and equal treatment norms when implemented in municipal law

International Law in Historical Perspective Jan H. Verzijl,1972-12-31 Department of State Publication ,1967
Government Gazette British Honduras,1959 Papers Relating to the Complaints of British Subjects in the South African Republic... Great Britain. Colonial Office,1899 Terrorism And the Foreigner Elspeth Guild,Anneliese Baldaccini,2007 This volume traces the developments in the laws and practices of the European Union and five of its Member States the United Kingdom Germany France the Netherlands and Italy at two points in time first at the time of the Gulf War following Iraq s invasion of Kuwait in August 2000 secondly following the terrorist attacks in the United States on 11 September 2001 The focus is on the legal status of immigrants and asylum seekers and how that legal status is being modified on grounds of security related measures adopted over a period of about ten years Particularly the question is whether and how far situations have come into existence which could be considered to be in conflict with fundamental principles of human rights Stigma: An Ethnography Of Mental Illness And Hiv/aids In China Jinhua Guo,2016-02-04 Based on two and a half years of fieldwork in China this book examines the cultural genesis and social mechanisms of stigma related to mental illness and HIV AIDS in China It also explores the bio politics on stigma through detailed description of social exclusion experienced by people suffering from mental illness or HIV AIDS and by systematic comparison on stigma between the two illnesses in the Chinese context Through the comparison this book describes the micro socio dynamic process of stigmatization in the local Chinese context highlights the identity transformation

accompanying the illness trajectory the patients and their families have lived through and ultimately connects Chinese society and its community centered social value system and institutional arrangement to the stigma associated with mental illness and HIV AIDS

Deportation of Alien Seamen United States. Congress. House. Committee on Immigration and Naturalization,1925 Government Gazette, British Honduras British Honduras,1943 Mass Expulsion in Modern International Law and Practice Jean-Marie Henckaerts,1995-07-06 2 Hague Law of War International Law Reports E. Lauterpacht,1963 International Law Reports is the only publication in the world wholly devoted to the regular and systematic reporting in English of courts and arbitrators as well as judgements of national courts The 1951 Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees and its 1967 Protocol ,2024-01-10 The Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees adopted on 28 July 1951 in Geneva continues to provide the most comprehensive codification of the rights of refugees yet attempted Consolidating previous international instruments relating to refugees the 1951 Convention with its 1967 Protocol marks a cornerstone in the development of international refugee law At present there are 149 States Parties to one or both of these instruments expressing a worldwide consensus on the definition of the term refugee and the fundamental rights to be granted to refugees These facts demonstrate and underline the extraordinary significance of these instruments as the indispensable legal basis of international refugee law This Commentary provides for a systematic and comprehensive analysis of the 1951 Convention and the 1967 Protocol on an article by article basis exposing the interrelationship between the different articles and discussing the latest developments in international refugee law In addition several thematic contributions analyse questions of international refugee law which are of general significance such as regional developments the interrelationship between refugee law and general human rights law as well as the relationship between refugee law and the law of the sea
