Being a Teacher Alison M. Brady, 2022-11-08 This book re conceptualizes teaching through an engagement with Jean Paul Sartre's early existentialist thought Against the grain of teacher accountability it turns to the demanding account of being human in Sartre's thought on the basis of which an alternative account of teaching can be developed It builds upon Sartre's key concepts related to the self freedom bad faith and the Other such that they might open up original ways of thinking about the practices of teaching Indeed given the everyday complexities that characterize teaching as well as the vulnerabilities and uncertainty that it so often involves this book ultimately aims to create a space in which to reimagine forms of accounting that move from technicist ways of thinking to existential sensitivity in relation to one's practice as a teacher
