In fall 2014 Calista Education and Culture Inc CEC formerly Calista Elders Council began a four year study funded by the Office of Subsistence Management of the US Fish and Wildlife Service The study focused on whitefish and other non salmon freshwater fish harvested by residents of the Akulmiut villages of Kasigluk Nunapitchuk and Atmautluak as well as those living along the Kuskokwim River just below Bethel in the villages of Napaskiak Napakiak and Oscarville Harvest studies have been carried out in some of these communities Ikuta Brown and Koester ed 2014 as well as two major ethnographic studies one in Napaskiak Oswalt 1963 and one in Nunapitchuk Andrews 1989 Our intended focus was not on harvest amounts but rather traditional knowledge surrounding the harvest and use of the six species of whitefish as well as pike burbot and blackfish on which people from this area relied so heavily in the past and continue to harvest to this day In fact all three contemporary Akulmiut villages as well as settlements in the past were established at sites where fish fences were built across the river each fall to intercept whitefish as they migrated out of the lakes and sloughs toward the mainstem of the Kuskokwim River If there is one food that defines people from this area it is whitefish Provided by publisher What You See When You Can't See Zena Cooper, 2021-01-12 A deeply touching and uplifting view of the world through different eyes and a roadmap to finding bliss in the simplest of things Zena Cooper lives a full life in which she uses her senses to examine and explore the world around her She does all that without one thing many of us take for granted sight Born with Marfan syndrome a connective tissue disorder that means she is almost completely blind Zena kept the extent of her condition hidden from the world for four decades That was until Munch a guide dog full of personality took up residence in her life and almost overnight a disability she had been hiding for years was suddenly clear for all to see What You See When You Can't See follows Zena's journey in accepting her limitations A qualified integrative counsellor she shares her unique model to reset negative thought patterns along with tools to help anyone reshape their narrative Zena asks her readers to find beauty in their own adversity With Munch at the heart of her experience this book explores the possibility of an amplified life no matter your circumstances What Is the Truth About the Great Recession and Increasing Inequality? This is the first country specific analysis of the mediatisation of terrorism with Pakistan and Australia representing the two worlds respectively. Caught up in the 9/11 effect, Australia is known for its anti-terror hyper-legislation despite the implausible nature of the threat. In contrast, Pakistan is plagued by terrorism yet the military establishment favours a duplicitous policy of fighting militant groups selectively. To understand how the two diverse cultural sites with their very different experiences of terrorism make sense of this unpredictable threat, the book uses Beck's World Risk Society theory as a conceptual framework to examine the production and construction of news narratives around the risk of terrorism in both countries through textual analysis of local news stories and in-depth interviews with Australian and Pakistani journalists. Narratives about global terrorism are mostly Western with fear of its impact on Western democracy and civilisation. This book aims to fill the gap and present a nuanced understanding of global terrorism by examining the characteristics of the phenomenon in a Western as well as an Eastern location and the ways in which the risk of terrorism is being played out in the two worlds. This book will be of much interest to students of critical terrorism studies, media studies, Asia-Pacific politics and International Relations.
