Paul Ricoeur Bernard P. Dauenhauer,2000-01-01 Paul Ricoeur with Rawls Walzer and Habermas as some of his main interlocutors has developed a substantial and distinctive body of political thought On the one hand it articulates a rich conception of the paradoxical character of the domain of politics On the other it provides a fresh approach to such major topics as the relationship among politics economics and ethics and between concern for universal human rights and respect for cultural plurality His work rooted as it is in Aristotle Kant and Hegel also provides resources for a fruitful rethinking of the issues at stake in the liberal communitarian debate

Extraterritorial Immigration Control Bernard Ryan,Valsamis Mitsilegas,2010-04-06 A central element of contemporary border regimes is their application to migrants before they reach a state's territory. The main forms of this extraterritorial immigration control are visa requirements, pre-embarkation immigration controls and the interception of irregular migrants at sea. This work analyses the complex relationship of the law to these practices as legal guarantees are potentially avoided while the legality of control is often uncertain. It examines the international law framework including the law of the sea and the extraterritorial application of principles of non-refoulement contained in the Refugee Convention and in international human rights law. The work also includes detailed case studies of the legal challenges posed by extraterritorial immigration controls in Europe, Australia and the United States. Statutory Rules and Orders Other Than Those of a Local, Personal Or Temporary Character (varies Slightly). Scribal Cultures in Late Medieval England Margaret Connolly, Holly James-Maddocks, Derek Pearsall, 2022. York Medieval Press is published by the University of York's Centre for Medieval Studies in association with Boydell Brewer Limited. Page facing title page. Italian Horror Film Directors Louis Paul, 2015-06-08. There is no cinema with such effect as that of the hallucinatory Italian horror film. From Riccardo Freda's I Vampiri in 1956 to Il Cartaio in 2004, this work recounts the origins of the genre, celebrates at length ten of its auteurs and discusses the noteworthy films of many others associated with the genre. The directors discussed in detail are Dario Argento, Lamberto Bava, Mario Bava, Ruggero Deodato, Lucio Fulci, Umberto Lenzi, Antonio Margheriti, Aristide Massaccesi, Bruno Mattei and Michele Soavi. Each chapter includes a biography, a detailed career account, discussion of influences, both literary and cinematic, commentary on the films with plots and production details and an exhaustive filmography. A second section contains short discussions and selected filmographies of other important horror directors. The work concludes with a chapter on the future of Italian horror and an appendix of important horror films by directors other than the 50 profiled. Stills, posters and behind-the-scenes shots illustrate the book.

Publishers' Weekly, 1878. The Oxford Handbook of Modern Chinese Literatures Carlos Rojas, Andrea Bachner, 2016. With over forty original essays, The Oxford Handbook of Modern Chinese Literatures offers an in-depth engagement with the current analytical methodologies and critical practices that are shaping the field in the twenty-first century. Divided into three sections: Structure, Taxonomy and Methodology, the volume carefully moves across approaches, genres and forms to address a rich range of topics that include popular culture in Late Qing China, Zhang Guangyu's Journey to the West in cartoons, writings of Southeast Asian migrants in Taiwan, the Chinese Anglophone Novel and depictions of HIV/AIDS in Chu T'ien-wen's Notes of a Desolate Man. The Publishers Weekly, 1891. Indigenization of Language in the African Francophone Novel Peter W. Vakunta, 2011. Indigenization of Language in the African Francophone Novel: A New Literary Canon discusses the question of indigenization in the African Francophone novel. Analyzing the prose narratives of Nazi Boni, Ahmadou Kourouma and Patrice Nganang, this book contends that African literature written in European languages is primarily a creative translation process. Recourse to European languages as a medium of expressing African imagination worldview and cultures in fictional writing poses problems of intelligibility Developed to express and reflect Western worldviews and sensibilities European languages are employed by African writers to convey messages that seem to be at variance with European imagination These writers find themselves writing in languages they wish to subvert through the technique of literary indigenization The significance of this study resides in its raising awareness to the hurdles that literary creativity in a polyglossic context may present to readers and translators This book provides answers to intriguing questions centering on the problematic of translation in contemporary African literature It is a contribution to current research aimed at unraveling the conundrum surrounding the language question in African Europhone fiction particularly the cultural functions of translation in literature Potential translation problems have to be addressed in order to make African literature written in European languages intelligible to global readership With the advent of globalization transcultural communication has become an activity of enormous importance to the international community It is a subject of great interest to translators linguists language instructors and literary theorists United States Code: Title 1, General provisions to Title 9, Arbitration United States,1993
