Book Steven Berbeco,2011-08-19 Abstract In this study I propose a strong and innovative model of teaching that centers on the student and I report on the efficacy of this model using quantitative research procedures This model of teaching is systematized in the Marhaba curriculum a method of teaching first year high school Arabic that I designed tested and evaluated The Marhaba curriculum is founded on best practices and is a natural outgrowth of contemporary education theories including non linear curriculum design and multiple modality teaching materials that take into consideration students diverse learning styles Analysis of data indicates that use of the Marhaba curriculum positively influences student proficiency in Arabic In particular students become proficient regardless of a student s gender grade socioeconomic status or parent educational background Also student proficiency is not dependent on a student s attitude to learning or engagement in class or a student s attitude toward the curriculum Arabic as One

Language Mahmoud Al-Batal,2017-12-04 For decades students learning the Arabic language have begun with Modern Standard Arabic MSA and then transitioned to learning spoken Arabic While the MSA first approach neither reflects the sociolinguistic reality of the language nor gives students the communicative skills required to fully function in Arabic the field continues to debate the widespread adoption of this approach Little research or evidence has been presented about the effectiveness of integrating dialect in the curriculum With the recent publication of textbooks that integrate dialect in the Arabic curriculum however a more systematic analysis of such integration is clearly becoming necessary In this seminal volume Mahmoud Al Batal gathers key scholars who have implemented integration to present data and research on the method s success The studies address curricular models students outcomes and attitudes of students and teachers using integration in their curricula This volume is an essential resource for all teachers of Arabic language and those working in Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language TAFL Intercultural Communication and Language Pedagogy Zsuzsanna

Abrams,2020-08-27 Using diverse language examples and tasks this book illustrates how intercultural communication theory can inform second language teaching Researching and Working on the Arabian Peninsula Marielle Risse,2025-04-28 This book outlines strategies for current or soon to be business professionals government employees researchers and teachers to communicate study and work effectively on the Arabian Peninsula Using first person accounts as well as scholarly research from the fields of history anthropology political science travel writing and literature this book gives clear advice for expats wanting to create successful interactions with people from Arabian Peninsula societies By discussing how the practicalities of work and research intersect with cultural norms this book fills the gap between tourist guides aimed at the casual tourists and academic texts on narrowly defined topics Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language Andrea

Facchin,2025-10-01 Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language concentrates on the origins developments and current directions of the discipline Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language TAFL within the Arab world and partially outside of it during the last 60 years namely between 1958 and 2018 Considered in this volume are the most influential scholars authors educators and those significant works that have contributed to the development of the discipline In addition special attention is paid to the
