Thackeray's Novels Jack P. Rawlins, 2024-06-28 Jack P Rawlins's study explores one of the great problems of mid Victorian literature the explanation and justification of William Makepeace Thackeray's narrative style and structure Rawlins finds that Thackeray in his novels of English society uses an exaggeratedly conventional plot structure as a means to comment on the condition of the novel in England The frustration and fury that have traditionally been the response of the feeling reader to the excesses of Thackeray's narrator are the result of a basic aesthetic conflict of which Thackeray wants to make us inescapably aware a conflict between the dramatic action which demands a commitment from us and a narrator who feels that the commitment has been thoughtlessly made and who seeks to turn our attention to the didactic uses of the novel to the lie of the realistic and to other aesthetic and moral issues Treating The Newcomers Vanity Fair The Virginians and Philip in detail and the other works in the canon more briefly Rawlins locates Thackeray directly astride the most serious aesthetic problem of his age the status of fiction and its proper employment This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1974

Theology and the Victorian Novel J. Russell Perkin, 2009-11-04 Beginning with a wide ranging introduction that explains why a theological reading of Victorian fiction is both rewarding and timely Perkin also addresses religion's return to prominence in the twenty first century confounding earlier predictions of its imminent demise Chapters on William Thackeray Charlotte Bront Charlotte Yonge Anthony Trollope George Eliot and Thomas Hardy are followed by a concluding discussion of Mary Ward and Walter Pater that relates Pater's Marius the Epicurean to postmodern theology and shows how it remains a religious classic for our own time

Religion in the English Novel Michael Giffin, 2020-10-23 Romanticism marked a dramatic turning point in philosophy and aesthetics The shift from Classicism to Romanticism to Modernism and its Posts is paralleled in the shift from Kant to Hegel to Nietzsche to Derrida The central notions of the Enlightenment nature progress rationalism and rejection of the irrational are opposed by the central notions of the Counter Enlightenment relativism vitalism anti rationalism and sense of the organic Then there is the idea of freedom at the heart of the West s religious and secular vocabularies The authors discussed in this study ask their readers to consider the question of freedom and constraints upon it For some freedom is found in Christianity for others Christianity is freedom s enemy

Deeper Splendor Robert P. Vande Kappelle, 2022-03-03 Life s ultimate adventure its grandest game and greatest challenge is the spiritual transformation of the self According to Swiss psychiatrist Carl Jung personality and spirituality are interrelated spirituality flowing out of individuality Noting that people differ in fundamental ways even though they possess the same instincts to drive them from within Jung discovered that preference rather than instinct upbringing environment or genetic conditioning is central to personality The task of spirituality then is not to help us achieve correct doctrine or attain saintly status but rather to help us best understand our humanity This endeavor drives Deeper Splendor a study of spirituality and personality in modern literature We focus on modern literature rather than on theology philosophy psychology or sociology because as this volume makes clear one of the best resources for studying transformative spirituality is great literature The great power of literature is that it speaks of human action and thought not in the dry matter of fact terms of history ethics psychology or some other science but in ways that are lively uplifting and productive Engaging with great literature is like beginning a love affair Such encounters may appear daunting at first but when you fall in love you want to know everything about the object of your love and every encounter leaves you wanting more When literature enhances spirituality as is true in the dozen or more selections examined in Deeper Splendor each literary moment renders us more fully alive Like its companion texts Wading in Water and Deep Splendor this volume is useful for individual or group study Each chapter concludes with questions suitable for discussion or reflection
