All Wound Up:

Helluva Luxe Natalie Essary, 2012 On the corner of 13th and Fascination stands one helluva perfect Goth bar where there is always a seductive selection of fashion music and drama But when an unknown DJ shows up at the door and lands the best gig in town without paying her dues everyone's curiosity is piqued higher than Morrissey's hair Especially that of the model who falls for her the bartender who befriends her and the doorman who'd kill to keep the family together Helluva Luxe is a humorous dark and sexy story about making strangers into family and seeing the world the way you want to see it So if you've ever grilled a cheese with a blowtorch painted teeth down the side of your '59 Chevy or borrowed your dog's collar to wear out on a Saturday night then you'll dig the Luxe vitamins the day my fetal chromosomes for domesticity were forming The only thing domestic about me is that I'm housebroken usually Introducing Sharon May who dedicates her weekly humor column to the idea that Laughing Matters In every column she invites us to roll with life's punches by joining her in laughing at ourselves and the zany world we live in. For ten years Sharon has been entertaining Southern Utah newspaper readers with her hilarious accounts of everyday life. She delivers the grins in such common experiences as assembling furniture with directions that begin "Align Dowel D 3 with Hole H 26 in Door B," fighting thighs the size of grain silos, pulling out a tree root obviously wound around the earth's core, misplacing eyeglasses in the microwave and operating complicated technology such as toenail clippers. And then there was that time she tried to weigh her head in the grocery store produce scale. Sharon's hilarious mishaps and uniquely worded observations reveal a screwball world that every reader will recognize at once. She takes the mundane and makes us laugh at her foibles and misadventures which are our own as well. No matter who we are, SHARON MAY has been a humor columnist since 1998. She has been a middle school, high school and college English teacher for even more years and did a two-year stint as managing editor of a weekly newspaper. She grew up in the suburbs of Los Angeles but has lived the last decade in Hurricane, Utah, from where she launches her adventures into the Southwest. Laughing Matters is her second book. She can be contacted at smay@infowest.com.

The Secret of Meadowbrook Orphanage D. C. Johnson, Ron Rowan, 2012-05. It is said that love is the greatest gift of all, but in reality there are two greatest gifts. One is love that much we already know to be true. However, the second greatest gift is that of being a child, for it is only as a child that one knows how to truly believe. And it is this simple act of believing that has its own special kind of magic, as you will see in this story. When a child believes, there is an energy that feeds everything and everyone around them. It feeds even those magical beings whom most adults can no longer see nor will they ever see again, because they no longer know how to see that which they stopped believing in. Sadly enough, there are even some children who stop believing. Sometimes it takes the energy of other children to awaken their beliefs again, and that is also the case in this story. So I invite you to reconnect to the magic that each of us once had, the magic that children always hold, and the magic that will bring you to a place where everything is possible. All you have to do is believe.
