Contributors to this edition include experts in fields ranging from higher education, bilingual education, special education, gifted education, educational psychology and anthropology. In order to capture the broad nature of Chicano school failure and success, contributors provide an in depth look at topics as diverse as Chicano student dropout rates, the relationship between Chicano families and schools and the impact of standards based school reform and deficit thinking on Chicano student achievement. Committed to understanding the plight and improvement of schooling for Chicanos, this timely new edition addresses all the latest issues in Chicano education and will be a valued resource for students, educators, researchers, policy makers and community activists alike.

Child and Adolescent Behavioral Health Edilma L. Yearwood, Geraldine S. Pearson, Jamesetta A. Newland, 2012-01-18. As an increasing number of children and adolescents with psychiatric symptoms go unrecognized in our current healthcare system, the ability to identify and treat these issues in multiple healthcare settings has become vitally important. With access to primary care providers increasing and a shortage of child psychiatric providers, collaboration between psychiatric, pediatric and family advanced practice nurses is essential to improving care for this vulnerable population. Child and Adolescent Behavioral Health provides a practical reference to aid in this endeavour. Written and reviewed by over 70 nurse experts, it is a must have reference for all practitioners caring for children and adolescents.

African American Psychology Faye Z. Belgrave, Kevin W. Allison, 2009-07-15. This core textbook provides students with comprehensive coverage of African American psychology as a field. Each chapter integrates African and American influences on the psychology of African Americans, thereby illustrating how contemporary values, beliefs and behaviors are derived from African culture translated by the cultural socialization experiences of African Americans in this country. The literature and research are referenced and discussed from the perspective of African culture, mostly West African, during the period of enslavement and other critical periods in this country, e.g. early 20th century civil rights era and through the present. Chapters provide a review of the research literature with a focus on applications for contemporary living.
