

Year 2 Writing Ch

These checklist sets are the EYF-ESF National Curriculum for writing. They are split into:

- Working Towards the Expected Standard
- Working at the Expected Standard
- Working at Greater Depth within the Expected Standard

All of the statements are progressive within and across the year so that the majority of pupils will be working on them each year/term.

How to use the Checklists

The grid can be used to track the progression of individual pupils to highlight the progress of groups of children who are finding writing targets.

To help that a pupil is working at a standard in English, track progress throughout the school and where appropriate feed the children this feedback.

Working Towards the Expected Standard

Pupils can write sentences to form a short narrative about experiences (real and fictional), after discussion with the teacher.

beginning their sentences with capital letters and full stops beginning spoken words with phonemes and representing spelling with accuracy and making phonically plausible if not correct spelling some common exception words forming lower case letters in the correct direction, using right join forming lower case letters of the correct size relative to one another using spacing between words

Year 2 Writing Ch

Working at the Expected Standard

Pupils can write a simple, coherent narrative about their experiences (real and fictional), after discussion with the teacher.

writing short and simple sentences that subject and verb are clear beginning short sentences with capital letters and full stops

using spoken and written words accurately, not necessarily in the correct order using an alphabet (a-z) and (A-Z) using some punctuation (full stop / comma / exclamation mark)

beginning spoken words with phonemes and representing spelling with accuracy spelling many, 100 common exception words forming capital letters and digits of the correct size, relative to one another and to lower case letters

using spacing between words that reflects the use of the alphabet

Year 2 Writing Checklist

Working at Greater Depth within the Expected Standard

Pupils can write effectively and coherently for different purposes, drawing on their reading to inform the vocabulary and grammar of their writing, after discussion with the teacher.

making simple sentences, clauses and joining sentences to form one sentence using the full range of punctuation

beginning short sentences with capital letters and full stops

using spoken and written words accurately, not necessarily in the correct order

using an alphabet (a-z) and (A-Z)

using some punctuation (full stop / comma / exclamation mark)

beginning spoken words with phonemes and representing spelling with accuracy

spelling many, 100 common exception words

forming capital letters and digits of the correct size, relative to one another and to lower case letters

using spacing between words that reflects the use of the alphabet

* These are divided in the school into writing the spelling appears in the national curriculum (English Appendix 1). Teachers should refer to these to identify the words that pupils should be able to spell.

* The school is progressive taught in the national curriculum, which is divided into the grammar and punctuation appears in the national curriculum (English Appendix 1).
