Writing the School House Blues Anne Haas Dyson, 2021 Anne Dyson confronts race and racism head on with this ethnographic study of a child s efforts to belong to be a child among children Follow the journey of a small Black child Ta Von as he moves from a culturally inclusive preschool through the early grades in a school located in a majority white neighborhood Readers will see Ta Von encountering obstacles but finding agency and joy through writing and music making especially his love of the blues Most attempts at desegregating schools are studied by reducing individual children to demographic statistics and test scores This book instead provides a child s perspective on challenges to classroom inclusion Ta Von s journey demonstrates that it is within children s peer worlds formed in response to institutional policies and practices like desegregation initiatives standardized testing and a curricular focus on so called basic literacy skills that inequity becomes part of the experience of childhood This book examines policies about literacy testing and teaching including the potential power of the written word and of the arts Few researchers have had a career so embedded inside the lives of children in a classroom context as Anne Haas Dyson This book should be on every literacy researcher s shelf It is a culmination of years of Dyson s relentless fight against deficit framings of children and the deep inequalities that continue to persist in the world Jennifer Rowsell professor of literacies and social innovation University of Bristol Conflict

Resolution in Early Childhood Edyth J. Wheeler,2004 For courses in the Guidance and Management of Young Children This text examines the nature of conflict among 2 to 8 year olds from a research based constructivist ecological perspective integrating themes of caring building classroom community connecting curriculum involving family and community and responding to the current educational climate The author thoroughly discusses children s conflicts emphasizing that peer and community culture make up the foundation for preventing and resolving conflict and advocates teaching conflict resolution skills via a three layer cake of understanding management and resolution Coverage presents ways to create a caring classroom both in physical environment and curriculum to work with other adults in a child s life and to implement peer mediation Throughout the material stresses the need to understand all children in light of applicable theory and current best practice in culturally responsive and inclusive classrooms Preschool Peer Social Intervention in Autism Spectrum Disorder Nirit Bauminger-Zviely,Dganit Eytan,Sagit Hoshmand,Ofira Rajwan Ben-Shlomo,2021-09-22 This book presents the Preschool Peer Social Intervention PPSI a manualized comprehensive social curriculum to enhance peer interaction for pre schoolers with Autism Spectrum Disorders ASD in three key domains play interaction and conversation The book outlines the PPSI s transactional approach in each of the three intervention domains and incorporates developmental features and age appropriate play interaction and conversation skills while accounting for individual differences in social communication abilities The intervention is designed to be implemented within the child s natural social environment such as preschool and it includes the child s social agents namely their peers teachers and parents PPSI intervention curricula addressed in this book are based on typical play interaction and conversation development taking into account the social and communication challenges found to characterize young children with ASD in these domains Building up the ability to play interact and converse more efficiently with peers may render a substantial impact on preschoolers with ASD with vast potential for improving not only these children s immediate social experience with peers but also their future social competence that relies on these early building blocks 52 Ways to Teach Memory Verses Nancy Williamson,2000 Every book in this series is packed with easy to lead activities on a variety of important subjects for children who are learning about the Christian life Teachers will want all eight titles for their resource libraries
