Music Learning Global Trend:

Global Chart Trends Gideon Fairchild, AI, 2025-02-22 Global Chart Trends explores why certain songs become global hits by examining the economic and cultural forces that shape musical success. It moves beyond simple observations of chart performance, diving into the interplay between music economics and global culture. The book reveals how macroeconomic factors such as GDP and internet access correlate with music consumption and highlights the significant role cultural variables like language and social values play in the reception of international music. The book traces the history of international music charts from vinyl to streaming, illustrating how globalization has transformed music distribution. By combining quantitative data like chart statistics and economic indicators with qualitative insights from case studies and industry interviews, it offers a nuanced analysis. The book offers practical implications for artists, record labels, and policymakers seeking to navigate the global music market. The analysis unfolds by first examining the economic determinants of chart success, then delving into the cultural landscape, and finally investigating the strategies used by industry players. This approach reveals that achieving international chart success requires understanding both economic conditions and cultural nuances, and the strategic marketing efforts of artists and labels.

Community Music in Oceania Brydie-Leigh Bartleet, Melissa Cain, Diana Tolmie, Anne Power, Mari Shiobara, 2018-05-31 Community Music in Oceania: Many Voices, One Horizon makes a distinctive contribution to the field of community music through the experiences of its editors and contributors in music education, ethnomusicology, music therapy, and music performance. Covering a wide range of perspectives from Australia, Timor-Leste, New Zealand, Japan, Fiji, China, Taiwan, Malaysia, Singapore, and Korea, the essays raise common themes in terms of the pedagogies and practices used, pointing collectively toward one horizon of approach. Yet contrasts emerge in the specifics of how community musicians fit within the musical ecosystems of their cultural contexts. Book chapters discuss the maintenance and recontextualization of music traditions, the lingering impact of colonization, the growing demands for professionalization of community music, the implications of government policies, tensions between various ethnic groups within countries and the role of institutions such as universities across the region One of the aims of this volume is to produce an intricate and illuminating picture that highlights the diversity of practices pedagogies and research currently shaping community music in the Asia Pacific
