All Sorts Of Disability:

Sex and Disability Robert McRuer, Anna Mollow, 2012-01-04 This collection brings together scholars and artists in disability studies sexuality queer theory and feminism to show how much sexuality studies and disability studies have to learn from each other Disability John P. Hourihan, 1979 Disability in Different Cultures Brigitte Holzer, Arthur Vreede, Gabriele Weigt, 2015-09-15 How are disability and rehabilitation conceived of in different cultures How can these concepts be made accessible Studies from the fields of sociology ethnology and educational science address these questions whilst contributors from rehabilitation projects in development cooperation and from self help movements highlight culturally different perceptions of disability A distinctive feature of this reader is the dialogue it creates by bringing together scientific praxis and practical work Theodicy Jill Graper Hernandez, 2019-05-20 The problem of evil has vexed for centuries is pain and suffering in the world consistent with the existence of God Theodicy attempts to demonstrate or explain why the answer could be yes Some think that the problem of evil was solved a long time ago but theodicy in the 21st century has thus far produced novel approaches uncovered new dilemmas juxtaposed itself with other philosophical and religious fields listened to new voices and has even been explored through uncommon methodologies This is a new era of and for theodicy Though never removed from the logical problem of evil theodicy at least in the near future will generate unique arguments related to the phenomenology of lived suffering modal claims across worlds the possibility of ameliorative analysis narrative theodicy and standpoint difficulties in generating theodical discourse This special issue is dedicated to extending the platform for clear and interesting perspectives on new dimensions of theodicy and in reclaiming perspectives on the problem of evil that have been largely ignored in philosophy of religion Disability as Diversity in Higher Education Eunyoung Kim, Katherine C. Aquino, 2017-02-03 Addressing disability not as a form of student impairment as it is typically perceived at the postsecondary level but rather as an important dimension of student diversity and identity this book explores how disability can be more effectively incorporated into college environments Chapters propose new perspectives empirical research and case studies to provide the necessary foundation for understanding the role of disability within campus climate and integrating students with disabilities into academic and social settings Contextualizing disability through the lens of intersectionality Disability as Diversity in Higher Education illustrates how higher education institutions can use policies and practices to enhance inclusion and student success Learning Disability Nursing Practice Mark Jukes, 2014-10-22 This text encapsulates not only the origins of nursing in the learning disability field but also contemporary perspectives and areas for specialist nursing practice The book is divided into four sections origins perspectives practice and further perspectives Section one origins describes Great Barr Colony and explores the conceptions of practice of actual attendants and nurses who worked there It gives readers an in depth focus on aspects of work and practice not accounted for in the literature to date Section two perspectives explores social policy perspectives from the past eras of the workhouse the colony and the hospital through to the present age of citizenship Research in learning disability nursing practice is identified through scoping exercises to identify its current status The section questions the research and practice developments that have come of age and that constitute a challenge within an evidence based health and social care world Section three practice identifies a wide range of specialist areas of nursing practice including community learning disability nursing epilepsy forensics health facilitation autism mental health challenging behaviour children's services and working with people with profound and multiple learning disabilities Section four further perspectives addresses areas of contemporary and future concern namely educational curricula for nurses and the importance of inter professional education and practice development

Opportunity Monograph United States. Federal Board for Vocational Education, 1918 A History of Disability
Henri-Jacques Stiker, 1999 The increasing numbers of scholars policy makers and political activists who are concerned with questions of physical and cognitive disability will warmly welcome Henri Jacques Stiker's book the first to attempt to provide a framework for analyzing disability through the ages Published in 1997 in France as Corps infirmes et sociétés and available now in an excellent English translation the book traces the history of western cultural responses to disability from ancient times to the present In this volume Stiker examines a fundamental issue in contemporary Western discourse on disability the cultural assumption that equality sameness similarity is always desired by those in society He highlights the consequences of such a mindset illustrating the intolerance of diversity and individualism that arises from placing such importance on equality Importantly Stiker does not hesitate to assert his own stance on the issues he discusses that difference is not only acceptable but that it is desirable that it is necessary The author goes beyond anecdotal history to traverse a little known history penetrating to the heart of collective attitudes and reflecting on elements of policy The sweep is broad from a rereading and reinterpretation of the Oedipus myth to current legislation regarding disability he proposes an analytical history that demonstrates how societies reveal themselves through their attitudes towards disability at times in unexpected ways since the study of detail is often the best entry into the whole of a culture The book will be of interest to scholars of disability historians social scientists cultural anthropologists and those who are intrigued by the role that culture plays in the development of language and thought surrounding the disabled Henri Jacques Stiker is Director of Research and member of the department of the History and Civilization of Western Societies University of Paris VII Disabled USA, 1987
