various things that provoked these brethren 13 5 and it seems they were keeping a record of evil 1 Cor 13 5 It was time for the members of this congregation to show some spiritual maturity and demonstrate the type of love that bears all things believes all things hopes in all things and endures all things 1 Cor 13 7

Word Studies in the New Testament Marvin Vincent, 2013-06-19 Marvin Vincent was a 19 century Presbyterian minister and professor of New Testament at Union Theological Seminary in New York City He is best known for his classic Word Studies in the New Testament Vincent opened his Word Studies by remarking New Testament commentaries are so numerous and many of them so good that a new essay requires some explanation The present work is an attempt in a field which so far as I am aware is not covered by any one book though it has been carefully and ably worked by many scholars Taking a position midway between the exegetical commentary and the lexicon and grammar it aims to put the reader of the English Bible nearer to the stand point of the Greek scholar by opening to him the native force of the separate words of the New Testament in their lexical sense their etymology their history their inflection and the peculiarities of their usage by different evangelists and apostles

The collection of essays focuses on the twin areas of research undertaken by Prof. Michael W. Holmes: These are the sub-disciplines of textual criticism and the study of the Apostolic Fathers. The first part of the volume on textual criticism focuses on issues of method, the praxis of editing and collating texts and discussions pertaining to individual variants. The second part of the volume assembles essays on the Apostolic Fathers. There is a particular focus on the person and writings of Polycarp, since this is the area of research where Prof. Holmes has worked most intensively.
