

Recycle now!

by Marie Thom

Our world's resources will not last
They're quickly running out.
"Recycle now, no time to lose!"
Is what we need to shout.
Piles of litter in the streets
And rubbish on the ground.
Sad decaying landscapes
Everywhere you look around.

People walking past the bins
Drop rubbish from their hands.
We'll soon be swamped with growing mess
Does no-one understand?

Kicking cans around the street
Is surely just a game?
But when a creature dies inside
Then who should take the blame?

Plastic bags float on the sea
And cling just like a skin.
When fish begin to suffocate
It's too late to use a bin.

Broken glass is dangerous
But still it lies about.
Excitement as it shatters?
Injured animals can't shout.

It isn't hard to realise
Recycling is the way.
Keep the rubbish off our streets
Or later on we'll pay.
We need to care about our world
There's no time left to wait.
Start today, we've not got long
Tomorrow is too late.

The Cambridge Introduction to French Poetry Mary Lewis Shaw, 2003-08-14 Table of contents Wordsworth's Poetry, 1815-1845 Tim Fulford, 2019-02-08 The later poetry of William Wordsworth popular in his lifetime and influential on the Victorians has with a few exceptions received little attention from contemporary literary critics In Wordsworth's Poetry 1815-1845 Tim Fulford argues that the later work reveals a mature poet far more varied and surprising than is often acknowledged Examining the most characteristic poems in their historical contexts he shows Wordsworth probing the experiences and perspectives of later life and innovating formally and stylistically He demonstrates how Wordsworth modified his writing in light of conversations with younger poets and learned to acknowledge his debt to women in ways he could not as a young man The older Wordsworth emerges in Fulford's depiction as a love poet of companionate tenderness rather than passionate lament He also appears as a political poet bitter at capitalist exploitation and at a society in which vanity is rewarded while poverty is blamed Most notably he stands out as a history poet more probing and more clear sighted than any of his time in his understanding of the responsibilities and temptations of all who try to memorialize the past

Modern and Contemporary Yorkshire Poetry Kyra Piperides, 2023-07-31 Delving into the landscapes and politics of twentieth and twenty first century South East and West Yorkshire Modern and Contemporary Yorkshire Poetry Cultural Identities Political Crises theorises Yorkshire as a distinct region of poetry in its own right In outlining the commonalities and parameters of this branch of poetry Modern and Contemporary Yorkshire Poetry engages the work with a selection of poets writing in and about the region since 1945 including Philip Larkin Ted Hughes Simon Armitage Helen Mort Zaffar Kunial Kate Fox and Vicky Foster Charting the developments in Yorkshire poetry this book explores several key contexts including deindustrialisation the Miners Strikes and Brexit in detail evidencing the impacts of these sociopolitical events on the poetry of a region Modern and Contemporary Yorkshire Poetry investigates 75 years of poetry to ask the question what is Yorkshire poetry In other words what is it that connects poems by these writers whilst setting them apart from poetry of other UK regions The 100 Words That Make The English Tony Thorne, 2011-06-02 Englishness is an ancient and powerful concept but no one seems sure exactly what it means in the twenty first century In exploring our national identity Tony Thorne has compiled a fascinating compendium of the hundred words and phrases that have become the cornerstones of modern English and have been used sometimes deliberately but often inadvertently to stake out our common ground to define what makes us essentially English and thus different from those beastly foreigners who lurk just off our shores □□□□ Christopher

Kelen, 2011 Close Reading with Paired Texts Level 2: Engaging Lessons to Improve Comprehension Oczkus, Lori, 2017-03-01 Prepare second grade students for college and career readiness with this content packed resource Authored by Lori Oczkus and Timothy Rasinski this resource includes 12 units across the four content areas of language arts science social studies and mathematics Each unit incorporates close reading paired fiction and nonfiction text passages text dependent questions comparing and contrasting text and hands on activities to unify each week's worth of lessons. Differentiation and reciprocal teaching strategies and assessment options are also included within each unit to tailor to multiple intelligences and monitor students' progress. Close Reading with Paired Texts Level 2 Lori Oczkus, Timothy Rasinski, 2015-06-01 Teach second grade students close reading strategies that strengthen their fluency and comprehension skills. Students will read and analyze various types of texts to get the most out of the rich content. Their reading skills will improve as they answer text-dependent questions, compare and contrast texts, and learn to use close reading strategies on their own. The lessons are designed to make close reading strategies accessible, interactive, grade appropriate, and fun. The lesson plans are easy to follow and offer a practical model built on research-based comprehension and fluency strategies.

The Writer's Market Kathryn Struckel Brogan, 2003 Picturing Shakespeare Jean-Louis CLARET, 2024-05-07 This study investigates the capacity of Shakespeare's texts, obviously destined for stage performances, to generate images and mental colours in the readers and in the spectators' minds. Such notions as Ut pictura poesis and the paragone are discussed in the first part of this book, along with the function and nature of colours. After considering the sets of correspondences and the major differences between texts and images, the author presents and analyzes some of his own illustrations of Shakespearean characters. Jean-Louis Claret, both a university professor specialized in Shakespeare's theatre and an illustrator, proposes to shed light on the process that led him from the perusal of the written text to the visualization of visages. The voice of poets is unconventionally called upon to shed light on the complex mechanisms he describes. The Write Path 2024 NAWG Publishing, 2025-03-25 The Write Path 2024 contains all of the winning entries from the 2024 National Association of Writers and Groups members-only competitions, along with all of the judges' comments and the Open Poetry and Short Story competitions, along with the winners of our festival flash competition. It's a familiar and unfortunate story: educators everywhere are being asked to do more teaching with less money, less staff, and less time. One easy way to provide more content area instruction to very young readers is by scaffolding beneficial learning subjects within memorable read-aloud activities. This augments the instructional curriculum and keeps learning fun without adding to the educator's already full plate Read Aloud Scaffold Best Books to Enhance Content Area Curriculum Grades Pre K 3 offers teachers and librarians over 700 content area connections through carefully selected recently published children's trade books These selections include fiction and non fiction titles that represent outstanding read aloud choices that will augment the instructional curriculum covering subjects ranging from history to holidays to special events and from biographies and memoirs to poetry and character education A Closer Look suggests outstanding read aloud choices related to key units in the curriculum and features discussion points cross curricular activities writing prompts and related online and print materials

The Poetry Circuit Peter B. Howarth, 2024-09-17 Live performance has changed poetry more than anything else in the last hundred years it has given poets new audiences and a new economy and it has generated new styles from Imagism to confessional to contemporary Spoken Word But the creative impact that public reading had right through the twentieth century has not been well understood Mixing close listening to archive performances with intimate histories of modernist venues and promoters The Poetry Circuit tells the story of how poets met their audience again and how the feedback loops between their voices the venues and the occasions turned poems into running dramas between poet and listener A nervous T S Eliot reveals himself to be anything but impersonal while Marianne Moore's accident prone readings become subtle ways of keeping her poems in constant re draft Robert Frost used his poems to spar with his fans and rivals while Langston Hughes wrote Ask Your Mama to expose the prejudice circulating in the room as he spoke it The Poetry Circuit also shows how the post war reading boom made new kinds of poetry involving their audience and setting in the performance such as John Ashbery's anti charismatic Poets Theatre Amiri Baraka's documentary soundtracks of the streets or the confessional readings of Allen Ginsberg which shame the listeners more than the poet Covering the first seventy years of the poetry reading The Poetry Circuit demonstrates that there never were page and stage poets the reading simply changed what every modern poet could do

Writer's Market, 1997, 1996 The New Poet Richard Danson Brown, 1999-04-01 This gracefully written and well thought out study deals with a neglected collection of poems by Spenser which was issued in 1591 at the height of his career While there has been a good deal written in recent years on two of the poems in the collection Mother Hubbard's Tale and Muiopotmos Brown innovatively addresses the collection in its entirety

He urges us to see it as a planned whole with a consistent design on the reader he fully acknowledges and even brings out further the heterogeneity of the collection but he examines it nevertheless as a sustained reflection on the nature of poetry and the auspices for writing in a modern world distancing itself from the traditions of the immediate past The strength of this work lies both in the originality of its project and in the precision and enterprise of the close reading that informs its argument Interest in the concern of Spenser's poetry with the nature of poetry is in the current critical mainstream but here the attentiveness is both unusually focused and unusually sustained Brown garners more than would be expected from the translations in the Complaints while at the same time including striking and individual chapters on the better known Mother Hubbard's Tale and Muiopotmos he advances understanding of these extremely subtle texts and fully justifies his wider approach to the collection as a whole Arguing that Spenser's relationship to literary tradition is more complex than is often thought Brown suggests that Spenser was a self-conscious innovator whose gradual move away from traditional poetics is exhibited by the different texts in the Complaints He further suggests that the Complaints are a poetics in practice which progress from traditional ideas of poetry to a new poetry that emerges through Spenser's transformation of traditional complaint

Plague Writing in Early Modern England Ernest B. Gilman, 2024-05-31 During the seventeenth century England was beset by three epidemics of the bubonic plague each outbreak claiming between a quarter and a third of the population of London and other urban centers Surveying a wide range of responses to these epidemics sermons medical tracts pious exhortations satirical pamphlets and political commentary Plague Writing in Early Modern England brings to life the many and complex ways Londoners made sense of such unspeakable devastation Ernest B Gilman argues that the plague writing of the period attempted unsuccessfully to rationalize the catastrophic and that its failure to account for the plague as an instrument of divine justice fundamentally threatened the core of Christian belief Gilman also trains his critical eye on the works of Jonson Donne Pepys and Defoe which he posits can be more fully understood when put into the context of this century-long project to write out the plague Ultimately Plague Writing in Early Modern England is more than a compendium of artifacts of a bygone era it holds up a distant mirror to reflect our own condition in the age of AIDS super viruses multidrug resistant tuberculosis and the hovering threat of a global flu pandemic
