Lichtenberg, M.A. Lieberman, 2013-03-14 What's in a name The original title of our book Regular and Stochastic Motion was chosen to emphasize Hamiltonian dynamics and the physical motion of bodies The new edition is more evenhanded with considerably more discussion of dissipative systems and dynamics not involving physical motion To reflect this partial change of emphasis we have substituted the more general terms in our title The common usage of the new terms clarifies the emphasis of the book The main change in the book has been to expand the sections on dissipative dynamics including discussion of renormalization circle maps intermittency crises transient chaos multifractals reconstruction and coupled mapping systems These topics were either mainly in the mathematical literature or essentially unstudied when our first edition was written The volume of work in these areas has surpassed that in Hamiltonian dynamics within the past few years We have also made changes in the Hamiltonian sections adding many new topics such as more general transformation and stability theory connected stochasticity in two dimensional maps converse KAM theory new topics in diffusion theory and an approach to equilibrium in many dimensions Other sections such as mapping models have been revised to take into account new perspectives We have also corrected a number of misprints and clarified various arguments with the help of colleagues and students some of whom we acknowledge below We have again chosen not to treat quantum chaos partly due to our own lack of acquaintance with the subject Design for Transport Mike Tovey, 2016-04-15 The central premise of Design for Transport is that the designer's role is to approach design for transport from the point of view of the user People have a collection of wants and needs and a significant proportion of them are to do with their requirements for mobility The authors show how creative designers can take a user focused approach for a wide range of types of transport products and systems

In so doing their starting point is one of creative dissatisfaction with what is currently available and their specialist capability is in imagining and developing new solutions which respond to that opportunity How this is tackled varies depending on the context and the variety of solutions produced reflects the different aspirations and needs of the people they are designing for The chapters cover user needs and transport design and the transport system transport design case studies and the case for the automobile A conclusion briefly signals what the future for transport design might be Lavishly illustrated throughout in four colour Design for Transport is an imaginative and rigorous guide to how designers can take a user centred and socially responsible approach to tackling a range of types of transport from systems to products and from bicycles to automobiles demonstrating a rich array of solutions through case studies Forum Memo to Members ,1960 Intelligent Information and Database Systems Ngoc Thanh Nguyen,Ford Lumban Gaol,Tzung-Pei Hong,Bogdan Trawiński,2019-04-02 The two volume set LNAI 11431 and 11432 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 11th Asian Conference on Intelligent Information and Database Systems ACIIDS 2019 held in Yogyakarta Indonesia in April 2019 The total of 124 full papers accepted for publication in these proceedings were carefully reviewed and selected from 309 submissions The papers of the first volume are organized in the following topical sections knowledge engineering and semantic web text processing and information retrieval machine learning and data mining decision support and control systems computer vision techniques and databases and intelligent information systems The papers of the second volume are divided into these topical sections collective intelligence for service innovation technology management E learning and fuzzy intelligent systems data structures modelling for knowledge representation advanced data mining techniques and applications intelligent information systems intelligent methods and artificial intelligence for biomedical decision support systems intelligent and contextual systems intelligent systems and algorithms in information sciences intelligent supply chains and e commerce sensor networks and Internet of Things analysis of image video movements and brain intelligence in life sciences and computer vision and intelligent systems High-power Beams 81 ,1981 ERDA ,1977 Nuclear Science Abstracts ,1976-02
