Oxford's Sedleian Professors of Natural Philosophy Christopher Hollings, Mark McCartney, 2023-11-01 Established in the early seventeenth century following a bequest to the university by Sir William Sedley Oxford s Sedleian Professorship of Natural Philosophy is one of the university s oldest professorships In common with other such positions established around this time such as the Savilian Professorships of Geometry and Astronomy for example its purpose was to provide centrally organised lectures on a specific subject While the Professorship is now a high profile research post in applied mathematics it has previously been held by physicians an astronomer and several people in the eighteenth century whose credentials in natural philosophy are much less clear This edited volume traces the varied history of the chair through the first four centuries of its existence combining specialised contributions from historians of medicine of science of mathematics and of universities together with personal reminiscences of some of the more recent holders of the post
