2014 Final Essay For Business Studies:

Handbook of the Politics of the Arctic Leif Christian Jensen, Geir Hønneland, 2015-09-25 The Arctic has again become one of the leading issues on the international foreign policy agenda in a manner unseen since the Cold War Drawing on the perspectives of geo politics and international law this Handbook offers fresh insights and perspectives on the most pressing issues grouped under the headings of political ascendancy climate and environmental issues resources and energy and the response and policies of affected countries ECSM2014-Proceedings of the European Conference on Social Media Asher Rospigliosi, Sue Greener, Ghostwriting and the Ethics of Authenticity John C. Knapp, Azalea M. Hulbert, 2016-11-18 This book presents an ethical framework which evaluates the legitimacy of the practice of ghostwriting It explores the connection between personal authenticity and the use of ghostwriters in corporate political legal higher education and scientific contexts It then examines the history of ghostwriting as a professional practice and introduces a model for ethical analysis In this book the authors shrewdly address crucial ethical questions such as When is it acceptable for a leader to claim the words of a ghostwriter as their own When may this be inappropriate or even dangerously misleading What are the consequences when public awareness of this practice leads to cynicism about the authenticity of leaders and their communications And when if ever is the use of a ghostwriter ethical This book will be welcomed by scholars and practitioners alike as an original and timely contribution to the literature of business politics and communications Handbook of Research on Applying Universal Design for Learning Across Disciplines: Concepts, Case Studies, and Practical Implementation Fovet, Frederic, 2021-01-22 Universal design for learning UDL has been hailed for over a decade as a revolutionary lens that allows campuses to shift their efforts to create inclusive environments In recent years UDL has gone beyond the field of disability and been explored with regards to international and indigenous students There is now a sizable body of literature that details the benefits of implementing UDL in higher education as well as a number of emerging studies examining the strategic challenges of developing UDL across institutions There is however still a relative paucity of research discussing the transformation of instruction or assessment in concrete terms Therefore there is a necessity for research and information on UDL that has already been implemented in classrooms and the practical examples of what this process of transformation looks like The Handbook of Research on Applying Universal Design for Learning Across Disciplines Concepts Case Studies and Practical Implementation offers practical examples of UDL having successfully been embedded in courses within various disciplines and classroom formats as well as across the undergraduate and graduate sectors The chapters provide case studies and concrete examples of what the UDL reflection on practice might look like in specific faculties and departments While highlighting UDL in areas such as educational technology student engagement assignment design and inclusive education this book is ideally intended for inservice and preservice teachers administrators teacher educators higher education professors and leaders practitioners researchers academicians and students interested in the integration of

UDL into strategic academic plans Proceedings of The 5th MAC 2015 group of authors, 2015-10-14 The 5th Multidisciplinary Academic Conference in Prague 2015 Czech Republic The 5th MAC 2015 Globally Networked Teaching in the Humanities Alexandra Schultheis Moore, Sunka Simon, 2015-04-10 As colleges and universities in North America increasingly identify internationalization as a key component of the institution's mission and strategic plans faculty and administrators are charged with finding innovative and cost effective approaches to meet those goals This volume provides an overview and concrete examples of globally networked learning environments across the humanities from the perspective of all of their stakeholders teachers instructional designers administrators and students By addressing logistical technical pedagogical and intercultural aspects of globally networked teaching this volume offers a unique perspective on this form of curricular innovation through internationalization It speaks directly to the ways in which new technologies and pedagogies can promote humanities based learning for the future and with it the broader essential skills of intercultural sensitivity communication and collaboration and critical thinking Digital Media and Innovation Richard A. Gershon, 2016-02-11 Digital Media and Innovation takes an in depth look at how smart creative companies have transformed the business of media and telecommunications by introducing unique and original products and services Today's media managers are faced with the same basic question what are the best methods for staying competitive over time In one word innovation From electronic commerce Amazon Google to music and video streaming Apple Pandora and Netflix digital media has transformed the business of retail selling and personal lifestyle This text will introduce current and future media industry professionals to the people companies and strategies that have proven to be real game changers by offering the marketplace a unique value proposition for the consumer Dynamic Assessment of Students' Academic Writing Prithvi N. Shrestha, 2020-09-11 This book explores the application of an innovative assessment approach known as Dynamic Assessment DA to academic writing assessment as developed within the Vygotskian sociocultural theory of learning DA blends instruction with assessment by targeting and further developing students Zone of Proximal Development ZPD The book presents the application of DA to assessing academic writing by developing a set of DA procedures for academic writing teachers It further demonstrates the application of Hallidayan Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL combined with DA to track undergraduate business management students academic writing and conceptual development in distance education This work extends previous DA studies in three key ways i it explicitly focuses on the construction of a macrogenre whole text as opposed to investigations of decontextualized language fragments ii it offers the first in depth application of the powerful SFL tool to analyse students academic writing to track their academic writing trajectory in DA research and iii it identifies a range of mediational strategies and consequently expands Poehner's 2005 framework of mediation typologies Dynamic Assessment of Students Academic Writing will be of great value to academic writing researchers and teachers language assessment researchers and postgraduate students interested in academic writing alternative assessment and formative feedback in higher education The Palgrave International Handbook of Higher Education Policy and Governance Jeroen Huisman, Harry de Boer, David D. Dill, Manuel Souto-Otero, 2016-04-29 This state of the art reference collection addresses the major themes theories and key concepts related to higher education policy and governance on an international scale in one accessible volume Mapping the field and showcasing current research and theorizations from diverse perspectives and authoritative scholars this essential guide will assist readers in navigating the myriad concepts and themes involved in higher education policy and governance research and practice Split into two sections the first explores a range of policy concepts theories and methods including governance models policy instruments institutionalism and organizational change new public management and multi level governance The second section addresses salient themes such as institutional governance funding quality employability accountability university rankings widening participation gender inequalities technology student involvement and the role of higher education in society Global in its perspective and definitive in content this one stop volume will be an indispensable reference resource for a wide range of academics students and researchers in the fields of education education policy sociology social and public policy political science and for leadership Value and Unequal Exchange in International Trade Andrea Ricci, 2021-05-19 Contrary to the claims made by neoliberal governments and mainstream academics this book argues that the huge increase in trade in recent decades has not made the world a fairer place instead the age of globalization has become a time of mass migration caused by increasing global inequality The theory of unequal exchange challenges the free trade doctrine claiming that transfers of value from poorer to richer countries are hidden behind apparently equivalent market transactions Following a critical review of the existing approaches the book proposes a general theory of unequal exchange in the light of an innovative reconstruction of Marx's international law of value in which money and exchange rates play a crucial role in decoupling value captured from value produced by different countries even in perfectly competitive world markets On this theoretical basis the book provides an empirical analysis of the international transfers of value in both traditional trade and Global Value Chains The resulting world mapping of unequal exchange shows the geographical hierarchy of capital global exploitation by revealing a world divided into two quite separate camps of donor and receiving countries the former being the poorer countries and the latter the richer countries This book is addressed to scholars and students of economics and social sciences as well as activists of the North and the South interested in a better understanding of the asymmetric power relations implied in global trade It makes a significant contribution to the literature on political economy trade Marxism international relations and economic geography
