The Methods and Ethics of Researching Unprovenienced Artifacts from East Asia Christopher J. Foster, Glenda Chao, Mercedes Valmisa, 2024-04-17 The immense outpouring of archaeological discoveries this past century has shed new light on ancient East Asia and China in particular Yet in concert with this development another more troubling trend has likewise gained momentum the looting of cultural heritage and the sale of unprovenienced antiquities Scholars face difficult questions from the ethics of working with objects of unknown provenance to the methodological problems inherent in their research The goal of this Element is to encourage scholars to critically examine their relationships to their sources and reflect upon the impact of their research The three essays in this Element present a range of disciplinary perspectives focusing on systemic issues and the nuances of method versus ethics with a case study of the so called Han board MSS given as a specific illustration This title is also available as open access on Cambridge Core White-Collar Crime Michael L. Benson, Sally S. Simpson, Melissa Rorie, Jay P. collar crime scholars Jay P Kennedy and Melissa Rorie who bring new areas of expertise to the book that enhance its analytical depth and coverage of both white collar crime and the opportunity perspective New up to date case studies are included along with examinations of recent investigations into white collar crime and its control These timely updates reaffirm that this rigorous yet accessible book will remain a core resource for undergraduate and early graduate courses on white collar crime
